defraudare, vi, fraude detinere, occupare. The natural Force of this Word seemeth to be, to be loaded with a heavy Body, Job 40. 23. [Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not : he trusteth that he can draw up up Jordan into his mouth. Rather thus; "Behold, he is "loaded with a River, he run-

"neth not from it in a Fright;
"he is secure though Jordan
"should issue out unto his "Mouth." This surely may agree with the Hippopotamus or Sea-Horse, [See Root 154: 33.
in the Note.] an amphibious Creature, which diveth to the deepest Parts of a River, or of the Sea, and even taketh it's Repose there, after it hath grazed upon the Land. But Schultens, contends, that it suits the Elephant much better.] Figuratively, to

Hath two Significations.

I. Nitidum esse. This Word seemeth to import the advanced, improved State of a Thing, wherein it is raised above and exceeds itself, or other Things of the same Sort, Jer. 5. 28. [they shine, they improve, advance.] Jon. 1. 6. [if so be that God will think upon us with an advanced, raised, extraordinary Degree of Kindness.] In the Form of עֲשֵׂתִי (N^o. 5, 6, 7.) it is always joined with עֶשֶׂר or עֶשְׂרָה, ten: and signifieth eleven, or advanced, increased ten; as we call fixscore the long Hundred.

פה 1454

Hath three Significations.

I. Pars, portio : juxta, secundum. The primary Notion of this Word I know not how to settle. However it certainly signifieth, I. A Mouth, [Signif. III.] Prov. 27. 21. [so is a man to [the Mouth of] his praise; or to the Mouth that praiseth him.] Under this Head it admitteth several Variations, which are easily understood by our Translation. The most singular are these, namely, the edge of a sword; the Indentings of a File, or of a threshing Instrument, 1 Sam. 13. 21. Isai. 41. 15. A double Portion, or two Parts, [Signif. I.] Deut. 21. 17. Zech. 13. 8. The Collar, or Neck of a Garment, Job 30. 18. Particularly of Aaron's Ephod, Exod. 39. 22, 23. Psal. 133. 2. [the skirts, the Collar, of his garment, which inclosed his Neck.] II. לְפִי, כְּפִי, עַל-פִּי, [Signif. I.] denote Agreement, and Proportion; thus, Gen. 43. 7. [according to the tenor, agreeably to, those words.] Lev. 27. 8, 18. [according, in Proportion, to.] Numb. 26. 56. [According, agreeably, to.] Deut. 17. 10. [according, agreeably, to the sentence.] Prov. 22. 6. [Train up a child in, agreeably to, the way.] Zech. 1. 21. [so that, to such a Proportion or Degree that, no man, &c.] Numb. 9. 17. [And when the cloud was taken up, i. e. agreeably to the lifting up of the Cloud.] Jer. 29. 10. [that after seventy years be accomplished, according to the fulfilling of seventy Years.] III. Here, hither, &c. [Signif. II.]

- Pars, portio* פִּי * 1

Hath two Significations:

I. Orare, precari, rogare. The Sense of this Word seems to correspond to that of arbitror in Latin; only it extends a Step or two further. I. To arbitrate, to settle or decide an Affair by Arbitration, [Signif. II] Exod. 21. 22. [and he, the Woman's Husband, shall pay, pay, נתן, shall assign, appoint a Fine, as the judges determine + by Arbitrators, i. e. as Arbitrators determine.] Deut. 32. 31. [our enemies themselves being judges, Arbitrators.] 1 Sam. 2. 25. [the judge shall judge, arbitrate, him, i. e. the Business may be arbitrated, composed by the Judge. Dr. Patrick.] Psal. 106. 30. [Phinehas executed judgment, arbitrated, decided, composed the Affair. Job 31. 11. [an heinous crime,—an Iniquity to be punished by the judges; an arbitratory Crime and Iniquity, i. e. an Iniquity which any Arbitrator, even the Criminal himself, would condemn. So again, Ver. 28. Schultens from Guffet.] Isai. 28. 7. [they, the Priests, stumble in judgment, in arbitrating or determining between holy and unholy, clean and unclean.] II. To arbitrate, settle, decide a Thing in ones own Mind; to suppose, to think it is, or will be, in this or the other Manner, Gen. 48. 11. [I did not think (non arbitrabar) to see thy face.] III. To arbitrate in Favour of a Person, to be an Advocate, or to plead for him, 1 Sam. 1. 25. [but if a man sin against the Lord, as you do, by rendering the very Means of Reconciliation ineffectual, who shall intreat, arbitrate, be an advocate, for him?] Psal. 109. 7. [let his prayer, his arbitrating, his acting the Part of an Advocate for himself, become sin.] Isai. 16. 3. [Take counsel, execute judgment; arbitrate between the Israelites and their Enemies; be an Advocate for the Israelites to procure them better Treatment.] Ezek. 16. 52. [Thou—hast justified thy sisters; hast arbitrated for thy Sisters to compose Matters between God and them; hast by thy much greater Sins, been an Advocate to procure a Mitigation of their Punishment.] IV. To arbitrate in Favour of ourselves or others with God; to act the Part of an Advocate, to compose Affairs, to plead with him; to pray, to supplicate, to deprecate; and, by Use, it is stretched to signify Thanksgiving, 1 Sam. 2. 1. פֿן 1491

Angulus, extremitas. פֿנה [Root 1494.] signifieth to turn. Hence, the Turning or Corner of any square Body, but more particularly of a House; which Corner consisting of the largest and longest Stones, chosen for the Purpose, and extending alternately into both Sides of the House, and so being the strongest Part of the Building, which bound the Sides firmly together, hence, a Corner, or Corner-stone is put for a principal Person, who is the chief Support of a Community, Zech. 10. 4. [Out of him came forth the corner, the Stay or Support of the whole Body.] It may also be put for Towers or very strong Buildings, Zeph. 1. 16. Note. As the Houses in old Rome, and in other Cities, were not built contiguous, or close to one another, as in our Towns, but, to make them more airy and healthful, a Space of Ground was left void between House and House; so probably the Houses stood in Jerusalem. See Dr. Prideaux's Connection, Part I. Book II. Anno 570, in the Description of Babylon. These Corners or vacant Spaces, leud Women probably frequented, Prov. 7. 12. And there also idolatrous Altars might be erected, 2 Cbr. 28. 24.

Transire, transilire, subfilire. Schultens (upon Prov. 26. 7.) deriveth this Word from the Arabic; where he saith, it signifieth (1.) Luxare, to be out of Joint, to be lame, &c. And he understandeth the Action of the Priests of Baal (1 Kin. 18. 26.) to consist in their disjointing or taking to Pieces the upper Part of the Altar which was made † which he [Elijah] made; (as being, in their Conceit, offensive to Baal, and an Impediment to their Addresses.) For it followeth, (Ver. 30.) Elijah repaired the altar of the Lord which was broken down. But read the Passage over, and consult Dr. Patrick upon the Place. (2.) Laxare, to enlarge into Liberty and happy Circumstances. This Sense he applieth to Exod. 12. 13, 23, 27. Isai. 31. 5. Doubtless the Inlargement of the Israelites into Liberty and happy Circumstances was, in the Design of God, and by just Inference, connected with, and connoted in, his passing over them. But this doth not seem to be the direct and immediate Sense of the Word. For surely it is not good Sense to say, as in Ver. 23, The Lord will enlarge the door into Liberty and happy Circumstances, and will not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to smite you. But laxare to loose may be the primary Signification of this Word; as that will comprehend both the Luxation, which is a Cause of Lameness, and the Relaxation or Suspension of Action in passing over the Israelites. Thus; to relax, to loose. Applied, I. To the loosening or disjointing of a Limb; to be lame. II. To the relaxing or remitting the Action of the destroying Angel, Exod. 12. 23. [the Lord will pass, relax, slacken, over, or at, the door, and will not suffer the Destroyer, &c. In like Manner, and in Allusion to this Event, it may be understood in Isai. 31. 5. Hence, the Passover, a Festival in Memory of God's sparing the Israelites in order to their being enlarged into Liberty and happy Circumstances. III. To some frantic, loose, distorted Motions of the Priests of Baal at or upon their Altar, 1 Kings 18. 26. Or, if you please, to their loosening, disjointing Elijah's Altar. IV. To halting, or walking loosely; unsteadily between God and Baal, 1 Kings 18. 21.

 a file + a rubber with mouths
 1 Sam. 13. 21.

Repugnantia הַפִּצְרָ * 4 stubbornness —15. 23.

Hath four Significations.

I. Visitavit. KAL. To go to see, to take Notice of, to look after, to inspect, to take Care of, to take Account of, [Signif. I.] 1 Sam. 15. 2. [I remember I take Notice of, I attend unto.] —17. 18. [look how thy brethren fare, visit them for Peace, or in a kind and loving Manner, see how they do, what they want.] Isai. 26. 16. [have they visited, applied to, thee.]
Jer. 3. 16. [neither shall they visit it, attend upon it, any more.] Ezek. 23. 21. [thou calledst to remembrance, attendedst unto, approvedst, practisedst the lewd-ness] Gen. 50. 24. [God will visit you, look after you, take Care of you.] Judg. 15. 1. visited his wife; came to see how she did.] 2 Kings 9. 34.
 [Go see now, look after, this cursed woman] Job 5. 24. [thou shalt visit, inspect, view the State of thy habitation, including all that belong to it, and shalt not sin, or mistake in thy Endeavours for it's Posterity.] Psal.
 65. 9. [thou visitest, inspectest, takest Care of, the earth.] Jer.
 15. 15. [remember me and visit me, look after me, take care of me. So Psal. 106. 4.] HI-PHIL. To make, cause or order to take care of, to inspect. Gen.
 39. 5. [had made him overseer over, had made him to take care of, his house.] Lev. 26.
 16. [I will even appoint, order to have Power, over you terror.
 So Jer. 40. 7. [had committed unto him, had ordered him to take care of, or preside over,
 men and women.] N°. 104,
 &c. Hence (1.) Inspection, Care, Custody, Numb. 3. 36.
 —4. 16. [and to the office, Inspection.] Job 10. 12. [thy visitation, Inspection, Care.] Psal.
 109. 8. (2.) Officers, Inspectors, Overseers, that look after Things or Persons, N°. 94, 95, 96. Thus far the Sense is pretty direct. By a Litotes it di-vergeth into the following Branches. I. To care to lay up, connoting the Security of the Place, where a Thing is laid up; to lay up safely, [Sig-nif. IV.] KAL. 2 Kings 5. 24.

[bestowed them, laid them up safely, in the house.] HIPHIL.
Psal. 31. 5. [Into thy hands I commit my spirit + in thy Hands I carefully lay up, deposit, my Spirit.] Isai. 10. 28. [he hath laid up his carriages, hath made them to lie carefully, or safely.] Jer. 36. 20. [they laid up the roll, carefully made it to lie,
 i. e. safely, in the chamber.] Jer. 37. 21. [should commit Jeremiah, should carefully cause him to lie, or place him safely, in the court of the prison.] 1 Sam.
 29. 4. [the place which thou hast carefully appointed for his Safety.] Hence, a Depositum, (1.) A Thing laid up carefully, Gen.
 41. 36. [food shall be for stores, to be laid up safely in Magazines.] Isai. 15. 7. (2.) A Thing committed to ones Care or keeping, Lev. 6. 2, 4. [that which was delivered him to keep.] (3.) What is committed to us to observe, as God's Statutes, Precepts, Commandments. N°. 128, &c. II. To take care to appoint a Person, connoting the good Qualities of the Person appointed, Gen. 39. 4. [and he made him, took care to make him overseer of his house; this is considered as an Instance of his Master's special Care of his Family, namely, that he set such a well qualified Person over it.] Gen. 40. 4. [charged Joseph with them, took care to appoint Joseph for them, to attend upon them, as a Person he knew would be faithful to him, and behave well to them.]
Numb. 3. 10. [And thou shalt take care to appoint Aaron and his sons as being the properest Persons.] Numb. 27. 16. [Let the Lord—take particular Care to set a well qualified man over the congregation.] Deut. 20. 9.
 [they shall make, shall take Care to choose the best qualified, captains] Jer. 51. 27. [take Care to appoint a captain, the ablest General, against her.] Hence, a Person so chosen, an Officer, Inspector, Overseer, N°. 94, 95, 96. III. KAL. To take particular Care to charge or injoin a Thing or Work upon a Person, [Signif. IV.] Numb.
 4. 27. [ye shall appoint unto them, ye shall take special Care to injoin upon them, in charge
 + in keeping, or with Respect to keeping, all their burdens.]
 Ezra

Ezra 1. 2. [he hath charged me, hath exercised a particular Care in charging upon me, to build.] Job 34. 13. [Who hath given him a charge over the earth, what Superior hath taken Care to Charge upon him [the Care of] the Earth] —36. 23. [who hath enjoined him, hath taken Care to injoin upon him, his way.] Thus also God's Precepts, &c. (N^o. 128, &c.) may be understood, as enjoined upon us by God with particular Care and Attention, that we should carefully keep and observe them. IV. To look after, to take an Account of, to number or muster an Army, [Signif. III.] Isai. 13. 4. To number to take particular Notice or Account of any other Things, Exod. 38. 21. [as it, the Tabernacle or Contents of it, was counted.] Num. 4. 32. [ye shall reckon, take a particular Account of, the instruments.] Hence, Things that are numbered, or taken an Account of, Exod. 38. 21. [the sum, the things numbred, of the tabernacle.] V. To take Notice or an Account of Things or Persons that are missing, [Signif. II.] 1 Sam. 20. 6. [If thy father at all miss me, take notice of me as being absent.] Ver. 18. [thy seat will be empty, taken notice of as being empty.] Isai. 38. 10. [I am deprived of, am made to miss, to want, the residue of my years.] VI. To take notice of, in Displeasure, to animadvert upon, to correct, to punish, [Signif. I.] 2 Sam. 3. 8. [that thou chargest me with, animadvertest upon, takest notice of as a Censurer, a fault &c.] Psal. 59. 5. Isai. 26. 14, 21. —27. 3. [left any hurt it, take notice, or think of it for harm.] Ezek. 9. 1. [them that have charge over, that are to animadvert or execute God's Judgments upon, the city.] Numb. 16. 29. [if they are visited, animadverted upon, punished.]

Cucurbitae agrestes formae rotundae. The Afs—, or wild Cucumber, whose Leaves are very much like those of the Vine [whence it might take the Name of the wild-Vine,] but of an odious, poisonous bitter Taste. The Fruit is of an oval Figure, and its Form very proper for an Ornament in Architecture. The Word in Syriac and Chaldee (and perhaps in Hebrew too; See Root 219: 2.) originally signifies to cleave, to break asunder; and in Arabic to snap or crack: for the Fruit of this Plant, when ripe, is so full of Wind, that it bursts, and throws its Liquor and Seeds to a great Distance. And if it is touched before it breaks of itself, as soon as it feels the Warmth of the Hand, it flies open with an Explosion, and discharges its fetid Contents in the Face of him that touched it. *Cels. פרה 1519

Hath three Significations.

I. Florere, efflorescere.

This Word, I conceive, properly expresseth the progressive Advances of a thriving Plant; and signifieth to spring, to sprout out, to bud, to blossom, to grow, to flourish in all the Stages and Forms of Vegetation, according to the Nature of every Tree and Plant, [Signif. I.] Numb. 17. 5. [shall blossom, shall be in a vegetable State, shall be alive and grow. So ver. 8. was budded, was alive and grew.] A Bud, a Flower, a Blossom, the Product of Vegetation, No 24, &c. Figuratively, applied to the flourishing, growing Prosperity of a Nation or Person, Isai. 27. 6. Psal. 72. 7. —92. 7. Hof. 14. 5. —to the Growth and Spread of bad Qualities, Ezek. 7. 10. and Practices, Hof. 10. 4. —to the rising of a Pust, Pimple, Bile, Leprosy in the Skin, Lev. 13. 39. —to the Young of Birds, [Signif. II.] while they, or their Feathers, are in a growing Condition. Hence 'tis applied to young Persons, Job 30. 12; but in a diminutive Sense; the young Brood, the sorry Springals, the base Off-spring of vicious Parents. So Schultens upon the Place. But as for the Third Signification, as I do not understand the Passage in Ezekiel, to which it belongeth, I am not capable of forming a Judgment about it.

פרק 1526

Hath three Significations.

I. Rumpere, abrump. discindere, disrump. dilacer.
 To tear or rend asunder; to break or pull off, particularly, to break or pull off a Yoke laid upon the Shoulders, Gen. 27. 40. To pull or rescue out of the Hands of an Enemy, [Signif. II.] Tearing away Property by Violence, N°. 9. A Cross-way, where the Road is broken into two Branches, N°. 11.

פרש 1527

Hath three Significations.

I. Exponere, explicare: dispergi. To separate, to distinguish accurately one Thing from another, to specify; to be in a State of Distinction. Applied, to dispersed, separated Sheep, Ezek. 34. 12. —to declaring, deciding, specifying distinctly a particular Punishment, Lev. 24. 12. —to pronouncing every Word distinctly, that every Word might be clearly distinguished and understood by the Hearers, Neb. 8. 8. —to a specified, precise Sum of Money, Ezth. 4. 7. —to a distinct Narration of Particulars, — 10. 2. —to distinguished Persons, Ezek. 23. 6, 12. [horsemen, persons of distinction, riding upon horses.] —to Horsemen, as in a State of Separation and Distinction from the Foot. [Signif. II.] [Note; from this Root cometh Pharisee, a Person of distinguished guished Purity and Devotion, separate from the Vulgar.] — to Dung, as a Thing distinct, and to be quite separated from the Body, [Signif. III.] So excrementum, from excerno. As for פרש stingeth (Prov. 23. 32.) Schultens, following the Arabic, rendereth it thus, it shall cleave or burst the Liver like a Basilisk. But why the Liver more than any other Part of the Body? It is certain the Chaldee useth the Word in the Sense of pricking with a Goad or Spur (see Buxtorf. Lex. Chaldaic. p. 1853.) and from this Notion the Rab- bies derive a Horseman.

Fortress or Defence, which may absolutely be depended upon, Deut. 32. 4, 15, 31, 37. Hence, invincible Strength, or Fortitude, 2 Sam. 2. 16. [Helkath-hazurim, the Field of Rocks, or invincible Men,] Psal. 89. 43. [the edge, Rock, Invincibility, of his Sword, which hath hitherto been invincible.] Rock is also applied to pieces or shivers of Rock, Job 22. 24. some of which were grinded, or struck off, like our Gun-Flints, so sharp, that they serv'd for Knives, Exod. 4. 25. Josh. 5. 2, 3. VI. To inclose in a hostile Manner; to besiege, [Signif. II.] VII. To bind, or inclose with Trouble, Sorrow, Pains, to distress. Jer. 10. 18. The Pangs of a Woman in Labour. [Signif. IV.] —48. 41. An Enemy, a Distresser, Lam. 2. 4. Which Notion is also applied to Idols, as being not the Helpers, but the Distressers of those that worship them, Isai. 45. 16. VIII. This Word is also applied to a Place, Passage, or to any Thing that is narrow or strait, Numb. 22. 26. 2 Kings 6. 1. Prov. 4. 12. —23. 27. Isai. 28. 20. —49. 19. Lam. 1. 3. Hence probably it may be applied to the Neck, as that is the straitest Part of the Body, like a narrow Passage from the Trunk to the Head, [Signif. VI.] All this, I think, may pass. But how to bring the Hinges of a Door, (Prov. 26. 14.) and Ambassadors [Signif. III.] under the Force of this Root, I had rather say, I know not, than advance strained or far fetch'd Connections.

Peragraré, Peregrinari.
It seemeth plain to me, that this Word in Isai. 63. 1. hath relation to the Actions, the superb Mein or Manner of a triumphant Prince returning from a Battle, in which he hath got a compleat Victory over his Enemies. And compar'd with Isai. 51. 14. Jer.

48. 12. it may include the Pomp and high Spirit with which he driveth before him the Prisoners he hath taken. Admitting this Notion, we may thus translate Jer. 48. 12. [I will send him

driving his Prisoners before him in the greatness of his strength.]
Agreeably to this the remaining Place, Jer. 2. 20, may stand thus, [thou saidst, I will not transgress: whereas upon every high hill, and under every green tree thou triumphest, actest with an impe-rious haughty Spirit, playing the barlot. This is the best Account
I can give of this Root.

II. Septentrio, aquilo: aquilonaris. Schultens, in my Opinion, more justly deriveth the Word in this Sense from צפח [Root 1617.] signifying to look out as from a Watch-tower. Which agreeth very well with the Elevation of the northern Pole, and the Stars which revolve about it, overlooking and surveying, as it were the Earth. And so the north (Job 26. 7.) may denote our Hemisphere, or the whole Sky, which God hath stretched over the vast Void, that is between the Earth and the Sky.

Hath two Significations.

I. Lepra, leprosus. A Leper; the Leprosy, Mr. Maundril, who saw several Lepers, describes it thus. 'Tis a noisom Distemper, which not only defiles the whole Surface of the Body with a foul Scurf; but also deforms its joints, especially the Wrists and Ankles; making them swell with a gouty scrophulous Substance, very loathsome to look upon. It may well pass for the utmost Corruption of the human Body on this side the Grave. 'Tis very different from what we call the Leprosy in England. Maundril, p. 150. But this Disorder may have different Appearances in different Stages.

Pueritia: pueri. The Sense is uncertain. If we derive the Word from צעה, [Root 1611.] it may perhaps signify very grand, superb Work; in contradistinction to the two Che- rubim which Moses made upon the Ark, which were but small and low in comparison of the two lofty Che- rubim which Solo- mon made; those being about six Yards high, and the Extent of their Wings twelve Yards. suscipere. To take hold, as one Loop or Clasp takes hold of another, N° 12. Hence, perhaps, an Engine of War, (N° 11.) called קבלי; the Demolisher that taketh hold. Which I apprehend might be an Engine with strong iron Hooks, which laid hold of the Walls, and by repeated Efforts tore them down.

Probably such Instruments were used before the Battering-ram was invented. Ezek. 26. 9. [He shall set his demolisher, which taketh hold, against thy Walls.] Figuratively, to take hold of what is sent, proposed, enjoined; to receive, accept, admit, consent, to take upon one. 2 Kings 15. 10. I fled before, I was before hand in fleeing, unto Tarshish, i.e. I fled to prevent Consequences.] Psal.

17. 13. [Arise, O Lord, disappoint, prevent, him; interpose before he can hurt me.] —59. 10. [The God of my mercy shall prevent me; shall interpose in nick of Time, and save me before my Enemy can execute his pernicious Designs.] Psal. 79. 8. Mic. 6. 6. [shall I come before, prevent, the Lord, i.e. anticipate his Displeasure.] Hence, to surprize, to come upon one suddenly before one is prepared, 2 Sam. 22. 6, 19. [prevented, surprized, me.] Job 30. 27. [the Days of affliction prevented me; suddenly rushed in upon me.] Amos 9. 10. Hence also, to give Assistance, or a Benefit freely, unasked, unobliged, Deut. 23. 4. [they met you not, prevented you not hospitably, officiously, freely, unasked, with Bread and Water. So Isai. 21. 14.] Job 3. 12. [Why did the knees of the Midwife or Nurse prevent me, with tender, careful Treatment to preserve my Life.] —41. 11. Hath two Significations.

I. Sanctum esse, sanctificari, &c. To be set apart, appropriated, and devoted to some particular End and Use, Numb. 8. 17. Josh. 20. 7. Jud. 17. 3. Thus the Tabernacle, and all it's Furniture, was holy, because wholly appropriated to the Worship of God. Amos 7. 13. [the king's chapel, appropriated to idolatrous Worship.] Such Places and Things were sanctified when set apart to their special Uses by solemn Rites, Exod. 40. 9, 10. Neh. 3. 1. Mic. 3. 5. [they even prepare + sanctify war against him; i.e. solemnly determine to to treat him as an Enemy; to be always at War, never at Peace with him.] Persons appropriated to God and Religion were holy, Exod. 31. 13. [I the Lord do sanctify you, separate you to be my peculiar People.] Lev. 21. 15. [I the Lord do sanctify him, do separate him unto Myself and Service, as a Person of Dignity and Distinction.] Jer. 1. 5. —12. 3. [prepare + sanctify them, set them apart by a fixed Decree, for the day of destruction.] Days and Assemblies wholly sequestered to Religion were holy, Exod. 20. 8, 9, 10. Isai. 30. 29. Joel 2. 15. The Ground on which Moses and Joshua stood was holy, because the one was set apart for the solemn Delivery of the Law; the other, for the Scene and Monument of God's Power and Judgment in the Destruction of Jericho, Exod. 3. 5. Josh. 5. 15. The Mount was sanctified as it was separated by Boundaries from all the ground round about, and the People were not allow'd to stand upon it, Exod. 19. 23. With respect to Morals, Persons are holy or sacred, when habitually addicted or devoted either to Piety and Virtue, or to Vice and Filthiness, Job 36. 14. [among the unclean, i. e. among those that are addicted, and, as it were, consecrated to all Manner of Wickedness. So, Auri sacra fames, a fixed Avarice, wholly addicted to the Love and Pursuit of Wealth, without any Regard to Justice, &c. Virgil. Ego sum sacer, scelestus. Plaut.] Hence, קדש is a Harlot, or Prostitute, Gen. 38. 21. The same as זונה Ver. 15. קדשים Sodomite, Sodomites Deut. 23. 17. 1 Kings 15. 12. But it is most commonly used in the better and noblest Sense; namely, when the Heart and Soul are appropriated, habitually addicted and devoted to Virtue, Truth and Righteousness. Note (1.) As Things and Persons sanctified to religious Purposes, were treated with great Solemnity, so God is said to be hallowed or sanctified, when he is treated with the highest Regard, Honour, Reverence and Devotion, Lev. 22. 32. Numb. 20. 12. Deut. 32. 51. Isai. 5. 16. Ezek. 20. 41. —38. 23. (2.) As Things holy were not to be applied to any common Use;

VOL. II.

(Lev. 6. 27. Numb. 16. 38.) So what was not fit to be used is said to be holy, in sense the same as defiled, Deut. 22. 9. (3.) A solemn Assembly or Festival is sanctified when it is ordered to be kept, 2 Kings 10. 20. [And so War may be sanctified, when it is proclaimed, Jer. 6. 4.] (4.) Persons sanctify themselves for keeping a Solemnity by purifying, or putting themselves into a proper Condition to attend upon it, Exod. 19. 10. 2 Chron. 30. 17. Isai. 66. 17. (5.) A Person sanctifieth others for a Solemnity, Festival or Sacrifice, when he ordereth them to sanctify themselves for it, Exod. 19. 10. Josh. 7. 13. Job 1. 5. Which being equivalent to inviting them to the Solemnity or Sacrifice, in such Cases to sanctify is the same as to bid or invite, Zeph. 1. 7.

Hath three Significations.

I. Exspectare, praestolari. This Root includeth the Idea of a Line used in Building or Measuring, stretched out and directed from one Point to another. [Signif. III.] And as the Verb, in the first Signification, is sometimes construed with ad, which importeth a Motion, Tendency or Direction towards an Object, (Psal. 27. 14. —37. 34. Isai. 51. 5. Hof. 12. 6.) So, perhaps, this may be the primary Notion of the Root, namely, to stretch out as a Line in a streight Direction. Hence, to stretch out the Mind in a streight Direction towards an Object of Hope or Expectation; to expect earnestly; to hope that a Thing will be effected, and to wait steadily and patiently till it is effected. It is also applied to the Tendency of Water to flow directly into a Cavity, or proper Receptacle. [Signif. II.] Gen. 1. 9. [Let the waters —be gathered together, let them flow directly, into one place, the Cavity of the Sea.] A Collection of Water which hath flowed into a Pool or Well, Exod. 7. 19. Lev. 11. 36. A Place into which Water floweth, a Ditch, Isai. 22. 11. It is also applied to numbers of People, directing their Course, and resorting to one Place, Jer. 3. 17.

I. Incidere, sculperre: cortinae. Perhaps, to swing.
 Hence, I. The Hangings or Curtains of the Court of the Tabernacle, [N°. 3.] which, as Curtains commonly hang down in a swinging State (being fix'd only at the Top) might from that Circumstance take their Name: Hence, again, perhaps, to ornament with Figures after the Manner of Hangings or Tapestry, [N°. 1.] Figures, possibly, having been first wrought with the Needle upon Hangings, &c. from thence a general Name might be taken for all Manner of figured Work.
 Note קלע, in 1 Kings 6. 29, being distinguished from פתח (the proper Word for carving, in-graving, See Root 1540. Signif.
 II.) must be a Word of a more general Signification than פתח, and may be rightly translated,
 to ornament with Figures. II.
 A Sling, [Signif. II.] the Use of which consisted in being swung with Art and Force. III. The Leaves or Swingers of a Folding-door, [N°. 3.] which doubled in the middle, one Half swinging back again upon, and covering the other Half.

II. Canna, calamus, arundo. A Reed; both the small Sort, which grows in our Rivers and Ponds, and the much larger Sort, which grows in the eastern Countries. The Word is also used to signify Calamus aromaticus, sometimes alone, Cant. 4. 14. Isai. 43. 24. Ezek. 27. 19. Sometimes with the Addition of aromatis or aromaticus, Exod. 30. 23. Sometimes of Optimus, Jer. 6. 20. Now the Calamus aromaticus is a Reed growing in India and Arabia; which while it grows, scents the Air with a fragrant Smell, and when cut down, dry'd and powdered makes an Ingredient in the richest Perfumes. *Cels. Atramentarium. An Inkhorn. The Inkorns described by Dr. Shaw (Travels p. 293.) were of Brass, and square, with a Lid to clasp over them. To this square Piece, which held the Ink, was affixed, a long, hollow, flat shaft, which served both for a Pen-case, and to stick the Ink-horn into the Girdle; where the Writers and Secretaries wear them as a Badge of their Office. And in this Manner the Writers in Ezekiel's Time seem to have carried their Ink-horns by their sides † loins.

Monoceros, unicornis. Most probably the Rhinoceros, the strongest of Quadrupeds, the Elephant not excepted. Shaw's Trav. Supplem. p. 91. It hath a Horn upon it's Nose, above the upper Lip, as upon a Hill, which is very strong, and sometimes grows to a considerable Height, there being in Dr. Mead's Musaeum one about thirty seven Inches, another in Sir Hans Sloane's thirty two Inches long. Where also are seen two Horns about twenty five Inches long, which grew upon the Nose of the same Animal; which shews that the Rhinoceros hath sometimes two Horns. Dr. Parson's Dissertation upon this Animal, Philosoph. Transact. N^o 470. See also Kolben's Account of the Dutch Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope.

ראש 1735

Hath two Significations.

I. Caput, late. This Word is variously applied; but generally very easily understood. Properly it signifieth the Head of a Man, or of any Animal: Figuratively, the Top of any Thing; the first in Time, Order, Dignity, Degree, Excellency; a Chief, Head, Ruler, commanding Officer, a Captain: Hence, a Company, the Captain being put for the whole Body he commandeth, Judg. 9. 37. 1 Sam. 13. 17. The Head, or Sum total of a large Number of Men, Numb. 1. 2. The Principal is the Thing itself, the Head—the first Thing, as distinguished from any Addition afterwards made to it, Lev. 6. 5. Spices of the Head (Exod. 30. 23.) are the principal Spices, or the best of the Kind. A Head-piece, a Bolster, the Place or Part where the Head lieth.

Hath two Significations.

I. Multum esse, multi- plicari, et quae hinc dependent, ut satis: magni-nificus, magister, magnifi-centia: myrias: imbres.
It extendeth to both Quantity and Quality, Time, Space, and Degree. To multiply, to increase, to be very many, very great, very much, very plentiful, very copious; abundantly enough, Job
40. 2. [shall he that contendeth with the Almighty, instruct him?
&c. + Is there enough with the Almighty of Correction? i. e.
Hath not the Almighty Arguments enough, or abundantly sufficient, to correct their Errors? Let him that pretendeth to reprove God, answer what hath been already advanced.] Applied to Degree or Authority, it signifieth a great Man, a Commander, N° 5 c, d. Ma- ny Waters sometimes signifieth, Plenty of Water. Showers, or copious Falling of Rain, N° 64, &c. A Shower, or Flight of Arrows, [Signif. II.] To shoot in great Numbers, so as to discharge a Shower of Arrows.
Archers, who shoot in Company, many Thousands at once.
A great Number; a Myriad, or ten Thousand, N° 49, &c.

Hath four Significations.

I. Spatiosum, latum. I.
Properly, the Wind, Air, Breath
N° 8. B. Job 12. 10. —41. 16.
Ecclef. 3. 19. Hence, (1.) A spacious, airy Place: a Space, or airy Opening, [Signif. I.] (2.) An Instrument to winnow Corn, by exposing it to the Wind, [Signif. II.] (3.) A Breathing, Respite, Refreshment from Suffering and Trouble, N° 1, 2, 4, 6. (4.) A rough Wind is put for the Severity of God's Judgments, Ifai.
27. 8. II. From the Subtlety and Invisibilty of the Air, as in Greek and Latin, so in Hebrew, the Air or Spirit is used to signify that invisible Substance in Man, which is the Seat of Understanding, and of the Passions and Affections, Job 32. 8.
Hence, (1.) Spiritual Substance as

as opposed to Flesh, Isai. 31. 3. (2.) The Mind, the Principle of Thought, 2 Chr. 36. 22. [stirred up, excited, the spirit, the Mind, of Cyrus.] Psal. 77. 6. Isai. 26. 9. (3.) Any Temper, Disposition, Quality of the Mind, good or bad; as the spirit of heaviness, jealousy, wisdom, Prudence, Skill: a sorrowful, lying, faithful; right, haughty, humble Spirit, &c. Numb. 14. 24. [Caleb had another spirit, Disposition.] Jud. 9. 23. [an evil spirit of Variance.] 1 Sam. 16. 14, 15. [an evil spirit of Melancholy, and of a disturbed Mind.] 2 Kings 2. 15. [the spirit, the Endowments of Elijah.] Psal. 32. 2. [in whose spirit, Temper, Dispositions.] Zech. 12. 10. [a spirit of grace and supplication, i. e. a supplicating Temper to obtain my Favour.] Mal. 2. 15. (4.) In particular, the Spirit is put for Vigour, Liveliness, or Courage of Mind, Gen. 45. 27. Josh. 5. 1. 1 Kings 10. 5. Job 6. 4. —32. 18. [the spirit within me, the Ardor, Earnestness, Zeal of my Mind.] Psal. 142. 3. Prov. 18. 14. —for Anger, Resentment, Indignation, Judg. 8. 3. Prov. 14. 29. [hasty, short, of spirit, quickly fired.] —16. 32. Eccles. 10. 4. III. The Spirit, or Principle of Affections and Passions in Brutes, Eccles. 3. 21. IV. The Spirit of God: which must signify some secret Influences or Impressions upon the Mind or Body; either immediately by the Power of God, or by the blessed Agent, which Christians commonly understand by the spirit of God. Psal. 139. 7. [from thy spirit, the Exertions and Influences of thy Power.] 2 Kings 2. 16. Isai. 40. 7, 13. The Spirit of God is represented (1.) as a creating, forming, animating, Life-giving Spirit in a natural Sense, Gen. 1. 2. Psal. 104. 30. Mal. 2. 15. [the residue of the spirit, creating, life giving Influence.] (2.) as influencing the Minds of Men; either in an ordinary Way, by enabling them to attain, or to preserve the Purity and Holiness of their Minds, Psal. 51. 11. —143. 10. Or in an extraordinary Manner, by communicating eminent Gifts and Abilities, Exod. 31. 3. Num. 27. 18. Judg. 3. 10. Especi-

רוע 1761

Hath three Significations.

I. Malefacere. The proper Sense of רוע is under Signif.
 II. which see. But the I. and III.
 Significations, which are here placed under this Root come from רעע (Coccejus) and from ירע [Root 800.] I. To break, shake, shatter all to Pieces;
 to make good for nothing, [Signif. III.] To be reduced to a weak and wretched Condition;
 to be ruined, Prov. 18. 24.
 [A man of friends, i. e. one who hath many Companions or Intimates, will ruin himself:
 but there is a friend, &c.] II.
 In Hiphil it signifieth to act in a Manner that is breaking, shattering, i. e. injurious, mischievous, pernicious to others; or which brings Suffering and Distress upon them, either justly or unjustly; to do evil or mischief; to be wicked; to hurt,

 to maltreat; to afflict, to distress,
 to be in Distress. An evil eye (Prov. 23. 6.) is an invidious, or fordidly avaricious Disposition.
 It is also applied (1.) to any thing that is bad, naughty,
 good for nothing, Prov. 20.
 14. Jer. 24. 2, 3. (2.) To a Mind broken or shattered with Grief or Vexation; Prov.
 25. 20. N° 138, 139. See also Root 1800: 64, &c.

Equitare. To ride on Horseback, or in a Chariot, Jer.
22. 4. The upper Part of a Thing in Motion is considered as riding. Hence, the Upper- millstone, or Rider, N° 42 A, 45.
—the Covering or Tilting of a Chariot, Cant. 3. 10. To ride is a Mark of Power and Dignity, Hof. 10. 11. Psal. 45. 4. [ride, exercise thy Dominion and Power, prosperously.] God made the Israelites to ride on the high Places of the earth, when he brought them in a triumphant Manner to possess a noble Country, where they lived in high Life, and in great Honour, Deut. 32. 13.
But God caused Men to ride upon their heads, when they were reduced to a State of vile Servitude, Psal. 66. 12. To ride upon the Wind (Job 30. 22.) is to be tossed about in it like a Straw; meaning, that he was violently shaken with his Afflictions. God rideth in supreme Majesty upon the Clouds, upon a Cherub, the most perfect and powerful of superior Beings: his Chariots are thousands of Angels, Psal. 68. 17, on which he rode for the Salvation of his People, Hab. 3. 8. He rideth, sitteth as Equae: pulli equarum,

i. e. muli. A Dromedary.

It differs from the common Camel in having a finer, rounder Shape, and a lesser Bunch upon it's Back. It is prodigiously swift, the Arabs affirming it will travel as far in one Day, as one of their best Horses in nine or ten. 'Tis governed by a Bridle, which is usually fastened to a Ring fixed in it's Nostrils. Shaw's Travels, p. 240. Supl. p. II.

Malogranatum. A Pomegranate, both Tree and Fruit. The Tree, or rather Shrub, is but low; the Boughs slender, armed with some longish Prickles; the Leaves like those of the common Myrtle; the Fruit, the Glory of the Land of Canaan, as big as a large Apple, quite round, but compressed a little at top and bottom; the Rind hard, but brittle, of a light Red, at first smooth, afterwards wrinkled; the whole Form so beautiful that it was honoured with a Place among the Bells at the Bottom of the High-Priest's Robe, and was the principal Ornament of the stately Columns of Solomon's Temple. A Section of the Apple gives a fine Resemblance of a beautiful Cheek, Cant. 4. 3. The Inside is full of small Kernels replenished with a generous Liquor. In short, there is scarce any Part of the Pomegranate which doth not wonderfully delight and recreate the Senses. Cels. Hierobot. Part I. p. 272. Raji Hist. Plant. Tom. II. p. 1462.

Calcere, concul. pro-
cul. repere, reptare. רמס differeth in Signification from רמש. רמש is to tread, trample, stamp upon; as the Potter treadeth Clay; as Beasts trample or tread down Grass in the Field, &c. Figuratively, the Conqueror treads down the Persons or Places he subdueth; the Oppressor tramples upon those that are obnoxious to his Power, &c.
רמש is to move with a progressive Motion, as Animals, Beasts, Fishes, Reptiles move
upon the Earth, or in the Sea.
It is used sometimes generally for every moving Thing, every or any Animal, Gen. 9. 2, 3.
Sometimes specially for Reptiles, Gen. 1. 25. —7. 21. It is applied to four-footed Creatures only Psal. 104. 20.

Vol. II.

Hath three Significations.

I. Pascere, pasci, depascere. To feed, to sustain, Gen. 48. 15. Psal. 37. 3. Hof. 12. 1. To graze or feed as Cattle do, ranging and expatiating from one Place or Part to another, Ezek. 34. 18, 19. Prov. 15. 14. Hence, to expatiate, wander or walk about, Numb. 14. 33. Cant. 2. 16. —6. 2. To expatiate, to range about from one Object to another in in the Mind, to think; hence, Thoughts or Agitations of the Mind devising or contriving for the best, [Signif. II.] which may also admit the Notion of Care and Solitude. Schultens on Prov. 6. 3. Cattle feed together in Herds or Flocks. Hence, (1.) A Herdsman or Shepherd, who attends and guards Cattle while feeding, N^o 6, 19, 20. From Feeding in this Sense, as a Shepherd feedeth his Flock, is derived the Notion of a civil Governor, who ruleth and protecteth his Subjects, 2 Sam. 7. 7. 1 Chron. 17. 6. Psal. 78. 71. And also of a spiritual Guide or Pastor, who instructeth and guideth the Understanding Prov. 10. 21. Isai. 56. 11. Jer. 3. 15. —17. 16. (2.) A Companion, Friend, or Neighbour; one that is of the same Flock, that associateth or feedeth together with one [Signif. III.] (3.) A Pasture, N^o 49, &c. God's Church or Congregation in this World is his Pasture, where he feedeth and ruleth his People, Psal. 74. 1. —95. 7. Jer. 23. 1. (4.) It taketh in the Notion of eating up or devouring as Cattle eat up Grass, Psal. 49. 14. Ezek. 34. 18. Hence, Coccejus deriveth the Notion of Anxiety or Vexation; as it is the eating up or devouring of the Heart or Spirit, N^o 64, &c.

II. Gigas. A Giant. How this Sense should come under this Root I cannot tell; unless these Giants were called רָפְאִים

rous Constitutions.

III. Mortui. That the Word רָפְאִים rephaim signifieth the Dead, in the following Places, is evident. That it is used as a general Term to signify any Dead, even such as would praise God, if they were alive and able, is also clear from Psal. 88. 10. In which Place, and in Isai. 26. 14, מְתִים, the common Name for dead Persons, and רָפְאִים are synonymous. In some places it may signify dead in the worst Sense, or such as are in a State of Perdition, with regard to the future World. And thus it may particularly be spoken of some tyrannical Lords, and great ones of the earth in that very elegant and striking Prosopopoeia, Isai. 14. 9. and again, Chap. 26. 13, 14. But what Relation hath this Sense to the Root? Answer. Meditating or embalming dead Bodies, especially of great and eminent Persons, is a Custom older than Jacob's Funeral. Gen. 50. 2. And great Numbers of such medicated Bodies, called Mummies, wrapt about with Bandages, have been found lodged, in subterraneous Caverns, where for some thousands of Years they had remained, near Cairo in Egypt. Now, as the Men who embalmed or medicated those dead Bodies, are called רָפְאִים ropha'im, N° 9, which we translate Physicians, Gen. 50. 2; so the dead Bodies, when medicated, might, for that Reason, very properly be called רָפְאִים rephaim. Which Word in Use would naturally be extended beyond its original Sense,

Sense, and be turned into a general Name for any dead Persons; especially for any that were great and renowned. Further than this I cannot find that we have any good Authority to carry the Sense, except where the Circumstances mentioned or implied in the Text, oblige us to take it in the worst Sense, for Persons in a State of Perdition, with Regard to Life eternal; in the same Manner as the common Words for Death and dead are sometimes to be understood. Job 26. 5. [dead things are formed from under the waters. It is literally thus; The dead, (perhaps who perished at the Deluge,) shall be brought forth from under the waters and its inhabitants; I suppose at the Resurrection. For the Resurrection of such Rephaim, or Dead, is in Isai. 26. 19, represented by an Idea of near Affinity to the bringing forth of Children; namely, by that of an abortive Birth. And the Earth shall cast out the dead, rephaim, as Abortives or untimely Births.]

Mortui * רפאים 64

Hath two Significations.

I. Pruna, carbo. As in Tents, and the primitive Houses, the Fire-place was the only Part that was paved, from this Circumstance this Word may well be allowed to derive the double Signification of a Hearth coal, or burning-Coal (by a Metonymy of the Subject for the Adjunct; as the Cup is put for the Wine it containeth) and of a Pavement. Both which Senses are elegantly implied Cant. 3. 10. [the midst thereof being paved, as a Hearth with love.] connoting both the Beauty of a Pavement, and the Ardor or Warmth of Love.

Tharsis. [Paupertatis significatum vide in רֹשׁ.]

I. Tarshish; the Name of some Country; but learned Men are not able to fix it to any certain Place. Ships at Eziongeber, which lay upon the Coast of the Red-sea, were going to Tarshish, 2 Chr. 20. 36, 37. And the Ship that took in Jonab at Joppa, which lay upon the Coast of the Mediterranean Sea, was also going to Tarshish; but from those two different Ports it is certain they were not going to the same Place, or Country. What Coccejus suggesteth may be true, that whoever in those Days took a long Voyage to a remote Country was said to go to Tarshish; just as we now call new and far distant Countries, the Indies, whether they lie to the East or to the West. II. The Name of a precious Stone; but the particular Sort is not determined.

Improbum esse, improbe agere. To be tossed with a restless Motion; to be in a jumbled, turbid State. Applied I. To the outward Condition, 1 Sam. 14. 47. [Whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed, he threw them into great Disorder, or spread Terror among them.] Job 34. 29. [When he giveth quietness, who then can give trouble.] Job 3. 17. [There the wicked cease from troubling: Schultens rendreth it; There they that have been tossed about cease to be hurried, or are quiet. But I see no Necessity for this. Our Translation is very good Sense.] II. To the Mind and Actions. To be in a turbid, disordered State with Regard to the Passions and Affections, when they are unruly, and throw all into Confusion. Or rather, to confound all Right and Wrong, Just and Unjust, Truth and Falshood; Good and Evil; or to think and act as if there were no Difference of Persons, Things or Actions. This is to throw the State of human Affairs into the greatest Confusion; this is to be wicked, or to do wrong, Exod. 2. 13. Ifai. 57. 20.

Pruna, scintilla. A very quick, rapid, brandishing and penetrating Motion: (1.) As that of an Arrow shot from a strong Bow, Psal. 76. 3. (2.) As that of the vehement Heat or Flame of raging Fevers and Calentures, Deut. 32. 24. (3.) As that of the vehement Efforts or Exertions of Love, Cant. 8.

6. See below. (4.) As that of a violent Flame, Job 5. 7. [as the sparks + the Sons of the rapid Flame fly upwards. Schultens's Interpretation of this and the foregoing Verse seemeth to be forced, inconsistent and unnatural. See Dr. Patrick. I should rather paraphrase Ver. 7. thus; "Although it be true, " or notwithstanding that it is " true, in general, that Man is " subjected to many Troubles " as naturally as the Sparks are " disposed to fly upwards."] Cant. 8. 6. רתם 1834

Hath two Significations.

I. Juniperus. A Species of Broom, whose long, slender, and flexible Twigs serve the Husbandman, on several Occasions, for Bindings. [See Signif. II.] It grows high and thick enough to make a Shade from the Heat of the Sun. Virg. Georg. II. 1. 434, 435. And out of the Root grows an Excrecence which may serve for a Representation of the meanest Food. Schult. in Job 30. 14. Cels. Hierobot. P. II. p. 246. And were we better acquainted with the Nature and Use of the burning Coals of this Sort of Broom, which doubtless was used for Fuel, and for heating of Ovens, probably we should find Vastari, tumultuari. To be rent or pulled in Pieces, to be torn asunder, thrown down or broken off with sudden Violence, which occasioneth, or is attended with a great Noise, Crash or Crack. It is applied I. To Cities and Countries laid waste and ruined, by a sudden, noisy, tumultuous Overthrow, which breaketh or beareth down all before it, Isai. 6. 11. —37. 26. Hence, a rushing, sweeping Storm, Ezek. 38. 9. שְׂוֹאָה translated desolate and waste, Job 30. 3. —38. 27. Wasteness and desolation, Zeph. 1. 15, signifieth the most compleat Desolation or ruined Condition. II. To a Gate that is at once broke down and mashed to Pieces, Isai. 24. 12. III. To the like Destruction of Persons, which rusheth suddenly and tumultuously upon them. Psal. 35. 8, 17. —63. 9. Job 30. 14. IV. Metaphorically, it is applied to great Surprise and Astonishment, when the Mind, with Respect to it's usual calm State, and easy, free Way of thinking, is desolate, and overwhelmed with a Stupor, [in the same Manner שֹׁמֵם Root 1965. signifieth both to be desolate and to be astonished.] Gen. 24. 21. [the man wondering, being astonished, at her.] Psal. 40. 2. [an horrible pit, a Pit of Astonishment, which shocketh the Mind, and filleth it with Horror.] V. It is applied to the rushing, roaring Noise of the Sea and its Waves, Psal. 65. 7. Isai. 17. 12, 13. Jer. 51. 55. —to the rushing of an Inundation, Isai. 25. 5. [Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers; rather the rushing of the Inundation. See Root 524.] VI. To the Noise and Tumult of numerous Armies invading or ravaging a Country, Psal. 74. 23. Isai. 13. 4. —17. 12, 13. —37. 29. Amos 2. 2. VII. To any great Noise, Tumult, Bustling, Shouting upon any Occasion, Job 36. 29. [the noise, Thunder, of his tabernacle.] Isai. 5. 14. Jer. 46. 17. [Pharaoh is a noise, nothing but a Tumult, boasting and hurrying in his military Preparations, but effecting nothing.] Isai. 24. 8. [the noise, Tumult, shouting, &c. of them that rejoice endeth.] Zech. 4. 7. [shoutings, Acclamations, crying, grace, grace unto it.] Hence, Schultens rendereth Prov. 26. 26, thus, He that covereth hatred with flattering acclamations, his wickedness shall be shewed before the congregation, or Court of Judicature. But surely flattering acclamations alone are not sufficient to bring a Man upon his Trial in a Court. Something further must be meant; and perhaps, the true Sense of the Word is given under Root 1199, (to which it may belong,) He whose hatred is covered by such deceit as leadeth a person into pernicious error, &c. VIII. To the Crying or Noise of a Driver, who with Words and Blows urgeth forward a Beast of Burthen, Job 39. 7.

Hath three Significations.

Reliquum, residuum esse, superesse. To remain, or to be left after the other Part of the Whole is gone away, taken away, used, &c. In this general Sense it is easily understood, though variously applied: Particularly, to the leaving a Piece of Dough, or Paste in the Tub where it is kneaded. Which Piece of Dough so left will grow fower, and contract a fermenting Quality: and being mixed with the next new Mass of Dough, will ferment or leaven the Whole, be it ever so large. As therefore our Word leaven seemeth to come from leaving; so שאר leaven [Root 1852.] may come from this Root שאר to leave. And the Tubs or Troughs, in which the Piece of Dough is left, and in which the whole

Mass is leavened, might naturally take a Name from this Circumstance, and be called Leaven-tubs, or troughs. [Signif. III.] From the general Sense it plainly appeareth, that שאר is a relative Term, naturally and always expressing the Relation of two Parts of a whole to each other. And therefore not only signifieth a Remnant, or Part that is left, or remaineth; but I. Any Part or Division of the same Thing, as distinguished from the other Part, or Parts, 1 Cbr. 11. 8. [Joab repaired the rest, the other Part, of the city.] Esth. 9. 16. [the other Jews that were in the kings provinces, as distinguished from the Jews that were at Shushan, Ver. 15.] 2 Cbron. 9. 29. Ezra 4. 3, 7. Neb. 11. 1. Esth. 9. 12. II. A Part that is reserved or set apart for some particular Purpose. (1.) That Part of an Animal which is reserved for Food, as distinguished from the Skin, Bones, Garbage, &c. Flesh, [Signif. II.] Mic. 3. 2. Flesh-meat, Psal. 78. 20, 27. Hence, the Flesh, properly so called, of the human Body, Psal. 73. 26. (2.) A Portion of Meat reserved or set apart for a particular Person Exod. 21. 10. [her food + her reserved Part, i. e. the Share of Food that should be reserved for her, N° 62.] 1 Sam. 9. 24. [Behold, that which is left + reserved, i. e. set apart for thee.] (3.) The reserved, or remnant of the Jewish Nation is generally to be understood of a Part reserved for the Purposes of Divine Providence, Isai. 10. 20, 21, 22. Jer. 50. 20. (4.) In a Family, the Remainder, or Reserved is to be understood of Posterity, Gen. 45. 7. 2 Sam. 14. 7. [shall not leave to my husband, neither name, nor remainder + Posterity upon the Earth.] III. A Part of the Flesh, or a Relation by Consanguinity, [Signif. II.] Lev. 18. 6. [that is near of kin to him + that is Part of his Flesh.] —25. 49. And where שאר standeth alone, I presume בשר is understood; as in Lev. 18. 12, 13. —20. 19. and perhaps in Prov. 5. 11. [when thy flesh and thy body, ושאר and the Part, Partners, of thee, of thy Flesh, i. e. thy Family, are consumed.] Jer. 51. 35. [the violence done to me, and to my

Hath two Significations.

I. Captivum capere, du- cere, vel abducere aut tenere, captivum deportare.
Though this Word commonly is applied to a proper Captivity, when a People are carried out of their own, into a foreign Country; yet it seemeth from Job 42. 10, [the Lord turned the captivity of Job.] that it may signify no more than ruined Fortunes; and the turning of such Captivity is the repairing such Fortunes. Thus it may be understood, where no proper Captivity can be found, to which the Word can be applied.

Captivum abduxit שָׁבָה 1

an agate Exod. 28. 19. —39. 12.

Laudare: compefcere.

To sooth gently. In HITHP. to sooth, or solace ones self, N° 9, 10. Hence figuratively, (1.) to appease, to calm: applied to the raging Sea, N° 4, 8. To Anger or Repentment, Prov. 29. 11. [keepeth it [his Repentment] in till afterwards. Rather, sootheth his Repentment backwards, i. e. represseth, keepeth it back, holdeth it in.] (2.) To praise, to applaud in a soothing, pleasing Manner. But the Figure is much stronger, when applied to Mirth, N° 1. and to the dead, N° 11. Schul- tens.

Implexum, perplexum in modum crucis in fenestris, i. e. cancellorum.
To

To be perplexed or intangled, as the thick, bushy Boughs of a Tree, N° 1. [See Root 1229.] To be interwoven as a Net; Net- or Checker-work; or as a Lattice; hence, a Lattice, such as sometimes encompassed the Top or Roof of a House, See Root 249. Probably Azaxiab was leaning over such a Lattice, 2 Kings 1. 2. and, the Lattice breaking, fell from thence into the Court.

II. Jurare. To give the most full and sufficient Assurance, to swear, or rather, to be sworn: for this Verb when applied to the Person swearing, signifieth to be sworn, or to admit a solemn Adjuration, being used only in the passive Conjugation NIPHAL from N° 48 to 78. Thus it importeth to take an Oath which another layeth upon a Person; to take upon ones self an Obligation of the most solemn Kind, to speak or perform a Thing truly. The Oath or Adjuration imposed seemeth to be of two Kinds, (1.) When a Person was adjured, or made to swear (as we translate it) by the Lord. 1 Kin. 2. 42. this was an oath of the Lord (2.) When a Curse was pronounced upon such as acted contrary to what was enjoined, 1 Sam. 14. 24, 26. Josh. 6. 26. This was an Oath of cursing, Numb. 5. 19, 21. In HIPHIL, this Verb relates to the Person who imposes an Oath, or bringeth another under the Obligation of it; and signifieth to make to swear, to adjure, to charge in a very strict and solemn Manner.

Hath two Significations.

I. Frangere, confr. diff.
effr. refr. conterere. To
To break as a Bow, Jer. 49.
35, a Bone, Exod. 12. 46, an earthen Vessel, Lev. 6. 28, a Ship in a Storm, Jon. 1. 4, are broken. Hunger and Thirst are broken when satisfied, Psal.
104. 11. A Nation is broken, when it's Power is weakened, or ruined. The Limbs of an Animal are broken when disabled, Exod. 22. 12. Lev. 21. 19.
Zech. 11. 16. Ezek. 21. 6. [with the breaking of thy loins, i. e. walking as if thy Loins were broken, or disabled.] Pride is broken when humbled. Broken in heart, are the humble and and truly Penitent, Psal. 147.
3. The Heart is also broken when grieved, quite dispirited and discouraged, Psal. 69. 20.
In

In this Sense it is applied, speaking after the Manner of Men, to the great God, Ezek. 6. 9. [I am broken + I have been broken, quite tired out with their whorish heart, and despairing as it were of their Amendment, have sent them into Captivity.] But the Word hath a different Force in Prov. 15. 4. [A healing tongue, which gives wholesome Instruction, is a tree of life; but a loose, slippery tongue, which hath no Regard to Truth, or good Principles, is breaking by a storm, which doth much Mischief in the World. [See Dr. Patrick and Schultens.] It is also applied to Waves, which rise very high, and which are dashed and broken by their own violence, or with great Force dash against Rocks and Ships Nº 103, 104. —to the Interpretation or breaking open of a dark and difficult Matter, Nº 94. —to the Birth of a Child, which is considered as a violent Breaking or forcing open of the Womb, 2 Kings 19. 3. Hof. 13. 13. Isai. 66. 9. [shall I bring to the birth, &c. Rather, shall I cause to break forth, or cause Children to be born, and shall I not beget other Children, who also shall be born; i. e. shall I not go on to increase and multiply Sion?] It also signifieth Corn or Food, and the buying and selling of Corn and Food, [Signif. 11.] But how this falleth in with the general Sense of the Word I am not able to determine.

Quiescere, cessare.

To cease to act, or, to be; to rest from acting or working. It differeth from חָלַל [Root 548.] thus: חָלַל is negative of Action or Existence, whether it be or be not before begun; שָׁכַח always supposeth Action or Existence to be before begun, and for some Time continued.

Errare. This Root and שגג [Root 1870.] are in Sense the same. To wander as Sheep, or as the Blind wander out of the Way, Ezek. 34. 6. Deut.
27. 18. [Root 1870: 11, 12.]
To err, to do what is wrong,
through Ignorance, Mistake, bad Advice or Persuasion; or through the Violence of some strong Passion or Affection.
Hence, to be transported, or carried away with such an Affection, to be ravished, [1870:
8.]

שֶׁהָר 1886

Lunulae, ornamenti species. A Head-dress; perhaps the same that Dr. Shaw describes (Trav. p. 294.) to be of nearly a triangular [or semilunar] Form, made of thin, flexible Plates of Gold or Silver, cut through and ingraved in Imitation of Lace. 'Tis call'd in Barbary a Sarmah. Some Ornaments of the same Form might be hung upon the Necks of Camels, and fall down before upon their Breasts.

Lunulae וְשֹׁהַרִּים * 1

Hath three Significations.

I. Reverti, redire; restituere, reducere. To return to the Place from whence one came; to turn another Way; to turn back; to go again; to come again. In PIHEL and HIPHIL it is, to cause to return,—to go again; to come again; to bring again, 2 Sam. 11. 15. [retire ye, turn back from him.] To turn back before a superior Power, Psal. 9. 3, 17. [the wicked shall turn back into hell.] Prov. 30. 30. It is variously applied, I. To Things natural or civil. (1) To turn the Body in order to look another Way, Ezek. 8. 6, 13, 15. Zech. 5. 1. or through Shame, Lam. 1. 8. (2.) A Border or the Edge of a Country, turneth into a different Line or Direction, Job. 19. 12 (3.) To be turned, changed, altered the natural State, Condition or Constitution, Exod. 4. 7. Lev. 13. 16. 1 Kings 13. 6. 2 Kings 5. 10. Job 33. 25. Isai. 29. 17. Particularly, to make the Life, the Soul or Spirit to return, is to restore the Life or Spirit; to refresh, to revive, Ruth 4. 15. Prov. 25. 13. Lam. 1. 16. Job 9. 18. [He will not suffer me to take my breath, or to make my Spirit return, i. e. he will not suffer me to refresh, or recruit my Spirits.] (4.) To turn Captivity, to bring an exiled People to their own Country; to reverse a State of Calamity and Suffering, Deut 30. 3. Job 42. 10. Psal. 126. 1. Amos 1. 3. [I will not turn away the punishment + I will not turn it, him or them, away from Punishment.] (5.) To turn back upon, to recoil, 1 Kings 2. 33. Ezth. 9. 25. Prov. 26. 27. (6.) To return as an Estate to the first Proprietor, Lev. 27. 24. 1 Kings 12. 26. A Thing turneth again to one, when it is restored, Deut. 28. 31. To make to return, to recover a lost Country, 2 Sam. 8. 3. (7.) To make to turn, to alter, reverse, revoke what is spoken, written, decreed, Numb. 23. 20. Judg. 11. 35. Ezth. 8. 5, 8. Isai. 45. 23. (8.) To return Answer; to answer, to bring Word, to report what a Messenger hath seen or heard, 2 Sam. 3. 11. Prov. 18. 23. —24. 26. —26. 16. [that can render a reason + that can answer judiciously.] Ezek. 9. 11. (9.) To make to turn, to render or pay Tribute, 2 Kings 3. 4. —17. 3. Psal. 72. 10. II. To Things of a moral or spiritual Nature. (1.) To make to return into the Heart and Mind, Psal. 35. 13. [my prayer returned upon my bosom, i. e. I prayed often and fervently.] Hence, seriously to reflect, recollect or bethink one's self, Deut. 4. 39. —30. 1. [call them to mind.] 1 Kings 8. 47. Isai. 46. 8. [bring it again to mind + make it return upon your Heart, i. e. Consider it seriously.] (2.) To turn the Purpose or Temper of one's Mind, to alter one's Sentiments, Measures, Conduct, Job. 24. 20. Job 6. 29. [Return, alter your Sentiments and Conduct.] —17. 10. Joel 2. 14.

Psal. 94. 15. [Judgment shall turn, change, into righteousness.] To turn from a Thing as being disinclined or averse to it, Mic. 2. 8. To return from an evil Way, to repent, reform, 1 Kin. 8. 47. —13. 33. Psal. 78. 34. Isai. 6. 10. Ezek. 3. 19. (3.) To return in Affection and Goodwill to a Person, Judg. 11. 8. To return unto God, 2 Kings 23. 25. Amos 4. 6, 8, &c. (4.) To turn from God, Numb. 14. 43. 1 Sam. 15. 11. Hence, the Notion of Backsliding from God and Righteousness, [Signif. III.] (5.) God turneth from his Anger, or his Anger turneth back or away, is withdrawn, remitted, when he ceaseth to punish, Job 9. 13. —14. 13. Jer. 4. 8. —23. 20. (6.) To make Returns of Gratitude, Retribution or Retaliation, 2 Chron. 32. 25. Psal. 94. 2. —116. 12. Prov. 17. 13. —24. 29. Nab. 2. 2. [For the Lord will retaliate, revenge, the arrogance, of the Assyrian, against Jacob, the Kingdom of Judah, as well as the arrogance against Israel, the ten Tribes. The Genitive Case of the latter of two Substantives is rightly translated with [against] before it, Joel 3. 19. [for the violence of [against] the children of Judah. Obad. 10. [For thy violence of [against] thy brother Jacob. Lowth on Nab. 2. 2.] III. It is a peculiar Hebraism to express the repeating of an Action, or the doing it again, by returning and doing it; thus, 1 Sam. 3. 5, 6. [return, lie down i. e. lie down again.] Gen. 30. 31. [I will return, I will feed, i. e. I will again feed.] Isai. 6. 13. [and it shall return and be eaten, i. e. though it be again eaten.] Deut. 24. 4. Job. 5. 2. Psal. 71. 20. —85. 6. Jer. 36. 28. See N° 76. A. These are the principal Instances in which the Force of the Word is exerted; and from these all the Rest will be easily understood.

1892 ש ו ה

Hath four Significations.

I. Aequari, adaequari.
To be level and even as a plain Surface, N° 4. Hence (1.) To be even or equal in Comparison, when one Thing is like to, match-

eth. or is as good as another, [Signif. I.] (2.) To be even or equal as an Equivalent, [Signif.
II.] Esth. 3. 8. [it is not for the king's profit to suffer them † an Equivalent is not to the King for suffering them.] Job 33. 27.
[and it profited me not † I have not received an Equivalent; it hath not answered Expectation.]

(3.) To set in an even, level, direct Position, so as to be all in the full View of the Eye, [Signif. III.] Psal. 16. 8. [I have set the Lord directly and fully before me.] —119. 30. (4.)
To even, smoothen, compose the Mind by Moderation, Humility and Patience, Psal. 131. 2.
[surely I have behaved, evened,
i. e. cleared from all the Roughness of Impatience and Discontent, my soul as a child.] Isai.
38. 13. [I reckoned I smoothened, composed myself, until the morning, in Hopes of having my Pains mitigated: but as a lion he breaketh all my bones.] (5.)
To lay in an even, solid, stable, firm Position, in Opposition to one that is declining and tottering, Psal. 21. 5. —89. 19. — Hof. 10. 1. [he layeth up fruit for himself. This, I conceive, is a beautiful Allusion to the Way of storing up dry Grapes, or Bunches of Raisins, by laying them in a Vessel one Course above another in an even, orderly Manner, and pressing them down, so as to make at every Course an even Surface. Thus Grapes, I suppose, were stored up. But Ephraim is compared to a Vine, which casteth it's Grapes, and storeth them up, (using the common technical Term) at her own Roots, not to feed her Owner, but to manure herself.]

IV. Vanitas, vanum: falsitas: in vanum. What is false and deceitful, vain, insignificant, that hath no Meaning, that answereth no good End or a very bad one; that is quite void of Truth, Goodness, Happiness. Vain Persons are idle, loose, good for nothing Persons, Isai. 30. 28. [the five of vanity, is the Sive through which all passeth, and is reduced to the State of vile Dust.]
I cannot see any Connection it hath with this Root. And therefore I apprehend it maketh a distinct Root by itself.

שׁוּה 1894

Hath four Significations.

I. Scutica, flagellum.
Schultens from the Arabic, giveth the primary Notion, to burn, to scorch. I. Hence, (as flagellum from flagro) a Whip or Scourge, which produceth a painful Sensation like Burning. [Signif. I.] Figuratively, severe Judgments inflicted upon a Nation, N° 1. The Lashes of a slandering Tongue, which goeth about whipping and scorching those that are affected by it, N° 2. II. Hence again, to move or go about full Speed, (flagellato, concitato cursu) as we say with Whip and Spur, with Activity and Diligence, connoting Circumspection or Attention to some Purpose or Design good or bad, [Sign. II.] III. Hence also, to row, to whip a Vessel with Oars along the Water full speed, [Sig. III.] IV. It is applied to the Mind, and signifieth an eager Appetite or Desire, and which is, as it were, upon full Speed to run upon, or assault those we hate, or to see others do so. [See Root 1847.] Schultens upon Job 1. 7.

- Flagellum* שׁוּט * 1
 the, a scourge Job 9. 23. Ifai. 10. 26. the—scourge —28. 15, 18. ¶ A whip Prov. 26. 3. Nab. 3. 2.
In flagello בְּשׁוּט 2

III. Remiges: remi. See Signif. I.

- Remiges* שְׁטִים * 16
 mariners Ezek. 27. 8, Idem הַשְּׁטִים 17
 rowers 26.
Remus שִׁיט * 18

IV. Cedri. The Acacia Tree, or Spina Egyptiaca. A Thorn which grows to the Bigness of a Tree in Egypt, and the Deserts of Arabia, particularly near Mount Sinai. It's Thorns are set on the Branches like those of the Barberry Tree; it's Flowers make a Fine Show. The Body will be so large as to supply Timber for Houses and Ships. The Wood is of a sweet Scent, light, beautiful and durable. From this Tree Gum-arabic is extracted. Celf. Hierob. Part I. p. 498. Raji Hist. Plant. Tom. I. p. 976. The Connection with the Root is uncertain.

- Cedrus* שִׁטָּה * 21
 the shittah-tree Ifai. 41. 19.
Cedri, cedri fittim שְׁטִים 22

שול 1895

Vide rad. שול

שול 1896

Hath two Significations.

I. Sepire, obsep. Vepres, spinae, &c. A Thorn; a Thorn-Bush, [Sig. II.] a Thorn-hedge; Figuratively, barbed Irons.

Obsepivisti שולק
Hast—thou made an hedge Job
1. 10.

Sepiens sum שול
I will hedge up Hos. 2. 6 + 8.

שול 1898

Hath three Significations.

Note. These three Significations seem to be quite different, and independent. As for the first, it plainly belongeth to the next Root.

I. Discernere, dijudicare.

Et discernendo וישול *
and gave Neb. 8. 8. [Root 1899: 45.]

II. Allium. Garlick, an Herb very plenteous, and much esteemed in Egypt. Cels.

Allia השול *

III. Coeli. The Heaven, the Air, or that Expansion which is between the Earth and the Clouds, Gen. 1. 6, 7, 8. The heaven of heavens is the vast and boundless Expansion above the Clouds, where the Dwelling-place, or peculiar Residence of God is supposed to be, 1 Kings 8. 30. The End or Side of Heaven, is the Horizon, or those distant Limits, where the Earth and Sky seem to meet, Deut. 4. 32. Isai. 13. 5. As in Arabic שולא signifieth to be high, or above, most probably from thence may come שול. See Schultens on Job 1. 1.

Conterere. According to the concurring Judgment of Commentators this Root is rightly translated : but some common Notion is wanting to connect the Senses.

Conteres ei תשופנו 1

שוק 1902

Hath four Significations.

I. Desiderare, concupiscere, appetere. The Derivatives of this Root and of שקק [Root 2011.] are intermixed; and the Sense seemeth to be the same. To run about, or to move to and fro with a quick, busy Motion, Root 2011: 1, 3. Nah. 2. 4. (Nº 16. they shall juggle, &c. Rather, they shall run to and fro, one one Way, another another. Hence,
I. To rove about in attending

שות 1906

Hath four Significations.

I. Ponere, appon. dispon. repon. I find but little Difference between the Sense of this Root and of שָׂם [1899.] therefore the Explication of that will sufficiently explain the Senses of this. To fet, or draw up, in a hostile Manner against a Person or Place, Psal. 3. 6. Isai. 22. 7. Job 10. 20. [let me alone, + fet from me, i. e. remove thy hostile Attacks from me.] To fet the Heart to an Object, to regard, Job 7. 17. [that thou shouldst fet thine heart upon him; regard him, concern thyself about him.] To put, lay a Fine upon a Person, Exod. 21. 22. From putting on cometh a Name given to a Garment, or Attire, [Signif. II. N° 48.] From placing a Foundation, or from setting the Superstructure upon it cometh the Name given to a Foundation, [Signif. IV.] And the Buttocks take their Name from setting or placing the Body upon them in sitting, N° 50, 51.

Posuit, appof. repos. שָׂת 1 hath appointed Gen. 4. 25. ¶ did he fet Exod. 7. 23. he hath fet Hof. 6. 11. ¶ hath put Job 38. 36.

Apposuit שָׂתָה 2
 did she regard + did she fet her heart 1 Sam. 4. 20. ¶ she may lay [put, place] Psal. 84. 4.

Posuit eas שָׂתָם 3 put them Gen. 30. 40.

Posuisti שָׂתָהּ 4
 thou hast put Psal. 8. 6. ¶ Thou hast fet —90. 8.

Posuisti me שָׂתָנִי 5
 Thou hast laid me —88. 6, ¶ thou hast made me 8.

Posui

שחה 1911

Abjicere, prosternere, deprimere, incurvare se honoris causa, praecipue in Hithp. To bow the Head or Body in Token of Reverence, Gen. 24. 26. —47. 31. 1 Kings
1. 47. —2. 19. Sometimes this Action was performed by Prostration, or by bowing down the Body to the Earth, I suppose,
after the same Manner as is now practised in the East, by first falling upon the Knees, and then bowing the Head so low as to touch the Ground, Gen. 24. 52.
2 Sam. 14. 4, 33. —18. 28.
This Action was used either as a Mark of civil Respect and Reverence to Men, N° 27; or as an Act of religious Worship paid to God or Idols, or presumptu-ously assumed by haughty Tyrants. Of this last Sort was the Worship paid to the Persian Monarchs; which, therefore, it is well known, no Man of Honour among the Grecians would comply with. See 2. Curt. Lib.
VIII. cap. 5. And King Aba- suerus having commanded, not any usual Mark of Honour, (there was no need of an extraordinary Command for that) but the same Divine Worship by Prostration to be given to his Favourite Haman, as was usually given to himself [Dan. 2. 46.] Mordecai, the Jew, could not in Conscience be brought to practise, what he regarded as a Species of Idolatry, or as performing that Worship to a Mortal, which was due to God alone, Esth. 3. 1, 2, &c. For, upon any Jewish Principles, he could not refuse paying civil Honour to a Person, who was his Superior. Note, Bowing down, or Prostration, the Sign, is considered as distinct from the Honour and Worship thereby signified, Josh. 5. 14. 2 Sam. 9. 6.

Psal. 95. 6. Isai. 44. 17. And therefore, bowing down, when used alone, must imply Worship, or the Thing signified by it.

Hath two Significations.

I. Stirps, frutex, arbustum. Schultens upon Prov.
6. 22. seemeth, from the Arabic, to have given the true original Force of this Word; to walk this or that Way, as when a Man taketh an Evening or Morning's Walk for Recreation, or the Benefit of the Air, to expatriate freely. It is applied, I.
To the taking of a Walk abroad for Recreation, Gen. 24. 63.
[Isaac went out to take a Walk in the fields.] 1 Kings 18. 27.
[he is talking; rather, he is taking a walk abroad.] II. To Shrubs, which, or whose Roots, spread or expatriate upon the Surface of the Earth, [Signif. I.] III. To the enlarging or expatriating freely upon a Subject in Discourse, Psal. 69. 12. [They that sit in the gate, the magistrates, speak against me; freely expatriate or reflect upon me.] Judg. 5. 10.
[Speak, expatriate upon the Good- ness and Praises of God, ye that ride, &c.] Psal. 105. 2. [talk ye of, enlarge, expatriate upon,

all his wondrous works.] —143.
5. —145. 5. Isai. 53. 8. [who shall declare, fully expatriate upon the Account of, his generation.] Prov. 23. 29. [who hath babbling, a rambling, rattling
Way of talking.] 2 Kings 9.
11. [and his communication, his rambling, extravagant Conversation; his Vagaries.] IV. To expatriate in Prayer, Psal. 55. 17.
V. To expatriate in complaining, to indulge to Complaints.
VI. To expatriate in Thinking, to meditate. Job 12. 8. [Speak to, expatriate through, the earth.]
Prov. 6. 22. [when thou awakest
(or risest up, see Deut. 6. 7.) it shall talk, expatriate, with thee;
alluding, perhaps, to the Morn-ing's Walk, which of all others is the most pleasant.

Hath two Significations.

I. Inebriari. To drink plentifully; to have the Spirits raised with Drink; to be drunken. Figuratively, To be drunken with blood is to shed much Blood. A Nation is drunken, when it is infatuated, bereft of Judgment, (N° 9.) in a staggering Condition, unable to guide or support itself. The strongest Sort of Wine, Numb. 28. 7, or any other strong Liquor, N° 24, &c.

Hath four Significations.

I. Mittere, dimittere, immit. &c. To throw, cast or send a Thing forth, or at a Distance from one, Eccles. 11. 1. Jer. 38. 11. [and let them down, cast them, into the dungeon.] It divergeth into various Significations, thus, I. To throw or stretch out, to put forth the Hand, i. e. to exert it in Action, Exod. 22. 8. Deut. 12. 7. 2 Sam. 15. 5. 1 Chron. 13. 10. Psal. 125. 3. Ezek. 2. 9.—Job. 20. 23. [shall cast, exert, the fury of his wrath upon him.] Psal. 104. 30. [thou sendest forth, exertest, thy spirit.] To throw, to stretch out, or put in the Sickles in reaping Corn, Joel 3. 13. II. To stretch out the Hand to, is to lay thievish Hands upon a Thing, and violent Hands upon a Person or Nation, Exod. 24. 11. 1 Sam. 26. 9. Neb. 13. 21. Esth. 2. 21.—3. 6. III. To throw out, to send out, to shoot an Arrow, 1 Sam. 20. 20. Psal. 144. 6. Hence, a missile Weapon, a Dart, or Sword which is thrown or stretched to wound or slay, N° 217. [Signif. III.] IV. To throw out, or shoot out Branches, or Roots, Psal. 80. 11. Jer. 17. 8. Ezek. 17. 6, 7.—31. 5. Hence, Branches, N° 205. It is also thus applied to Hair, when it groweth long, Ezek. 44. 20. V. To send out, to propagate, to breed Young, Job 21. 11. [they send forth, breed, increase, their little ones like a flock.] —39. 3. [they cast out their sorrows, their Calves in Parturition.] Hence, Children, [Plants,] a Brood of young Persons, N° 218. VI. To throw out, to breed, to spread Discord, VOL. II.

Prov. 6. 14, 19. Zech. 8. 10. [I set, cast, threw, every man against his neighbour.] VII. To send, to send away, to send out, in the common Sense of our English Word, Gen. 32. 3, &c. &c. Hence Presents, so called from their being sent, N° 202, 203. Isai. 16. 1. VIII. To send as a Prophet; to commission, authorize to speak or act in the Name of God; Num. 16. 29. 1 Kings 14. 6. Isai. 48. 16. Jer. 25. 17.—43. 2. IX. To send a Word or Order, 1 Kings 5. 9. [unto the place that thou shalt appoint me + which thou shalt send unto me, i. e. send me the Name of.] Psal. 107. 20.—147. 18. X. To send for, Job 1. 5. Jer. 16. 16. XI. To send away in a courteous Manner, to conduct, to bring on the Way, to go part of the Way with, Gen. 18. 16. 2 Sam. 19. 31. Obad. 7. [the men of thy confederacy have brought, conducted thee as Friends, to the border, but no further; there they deserted thee.] XII. To send away, to let go, to dismiss, to release, to discharge, Exod. 5. 1.—8. 32. 1 Sam. 9. 19. 2 Sam. 13. 27. Eccles. 8. 8. [no discharge, Dismission, in that war.] Isai. 58. 6. XIII. To turn or put out, to cast out in Displeasure and Indignation, Lev. 18. 24. 2 Sam. 13. 17. 1 Kings 9. 7. Jer. 15. 1.—28. 16.—Job 8. 4. [he hath cast them away for their transgression + he hath cast, thrown them into the Hand of their Transgression, to be ruined by it.] Isai. 27. 10. [and the habitation forsaken, cast away.] XIV. To send away, to put away, to divorce, Deut. 22. 19, 29. Isai. 50. 1. Jer. 3. 8. XV. To send or push away the Feet, is to strike up the Heels, Job 30. 12. XVI. To send out, to let loose as Cattle turned out to range at large, Gen. 49. 21. Isai. 7. 25.—32. 20.—Job 12. 15. [also he sendeth them [the Waters] out, letteth them loose in large, profuse Showers.] —30. 11. [they have let loose the bridle before me + they have loosened the Bridle, which bridled them, or kept them in awe, from my countenance. Schultens.] Isai. 27. 8. [when it shooteth forth, is let loose.] XVII. To let loose, to leave or abandon to Licentiousness, Psal. 50. 19.

[thou givest, letteth loose, thy mouth to evil.] —81. 12. [So I gave up, abandoned them, to their own hearts lust] Prov. 29. 15. [a child left, let loose, to himself.] XVIII. To set a City, &c. on Fire; is in Hebrew, to put or cast a City, &c. into the Fire, Judg. 1. 8.—20. 48. 2 Kings 8. 12. Psal. 74. 7.

Josh. 2. 1, 3. —7. 2. So—sent 22. Wherefore—sent —10. 3.
that he sent —11. 1. —24. 9.
That—sent Judg. 6. 8. —9.
23, 31. —11. 12, 14, 17, 19,
38. 1 Sam. 4. 4. And they sent
—6. 21. —12. 8, 11. —16.
12, 19, and sent 20, 22. also sent —19. 11, 14, 15, 20, 21, 21. —22. 11. —25. 5, 39.
therefore sent —26. 4. 2 Sam.
2. 5. —3. 12, 14, 15, 26. —
5. 11. —8. 10. —9. 5. —10.
2, he sent 5, 7, 16. —11. 1,
3, 4, 6, 6, 14, 18, 27. —12.
1, 25, 27. —13. 7. —14. 2, 29, 29. But—sent —15. 10,
12. —22. 15. And—hath sent
1 Kings 1. 44, 53. —2. 25, 29,
36, 42. —5. 1, 2, 8 + 15, 16,
22. —7. 13. —9. 14, 27. —
12. 18. —15. 20. —18. 20.
—20. 2, 10. 2 Kings 1. 2, 9, 11, 13. —3. 7. —5. 8, 10. —
6. 9, 10, Therefore sent he 14,
32. —7. 14. —9. 19. —10.
1, 5, 21. —12. 18 + 19. —
14. 9. —16. 7, 8, 10. —18.
14, 17. —19. 2, he sent—again
9, 20. —23. 1, 16. Now—sent
1 Chron. 14. 1. —18. 10. —
19. 2, 5, 6, 8. —21. 15.
2 Chron. 2. 3 + 2. which he sent 11 + 10. —8. 18. —10.
18. —16. 2, 4. Yet he sent
—24. 19. —25. 15, 17, 18.
—30. 1. —32. 21. —34. 29.
—35. 21. —36. 15. Now—had sent Neb. 2. 9. —6. 2, 5.
For he sent Ezra. 1. 22. —5. 10.
—9. 20, 30. Job 1. 5. Yea, he sent out Psal. 18. 14. Isai. 36.
2. —37. 2, 9, 21. Jer. 26. 22.
—36. 21. —37. 17. —38. 14.
—39. 13, Even they sent 14.
Hof. 5. 13. When they had sent

Hath three Significations.

I. Rependere, retribuere, reddere, presolv. To be compleat, perfect, entire. Applied I. To Quantity, [Sig. II.] Deut. 27. 6. [whole, undiminished, stones.] Josh. 8. 31. Jer. 13. 19. [wholly carried away.] Amos 1. 6, 9. [whole captivity.] Ruth 2. 12. [a full reward.] Deut. 25. 15. [a perfect weight and measure, not in the least defective.]

tive.] Prov. 11. 1. Gen. 15. 16. [the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.] Isai. 60. 20. [the days of thy mourning shall be compleated, or fully ended.] II. To the outward State and Circumstances; to be in a compleat, perfect State; to be in Circumstances quite secure and happy; to be at Peace, [Signif. III.] (1.) Absolutely; to be prosperous, safe, successful in any or in every Respect, Zech. 8. 12. [the seed shall be prosperous, in a perfect, thriving Condition.] Gen. 37. 14. [whether it be well with thy brethren and with the flocks + and see the Prosperity of thy Brethren, and the Prosperity of the Flocks, i. e. if all be perfectly well and safe.] Gen. 29. 6. 2 Kings 4. 26. Lev. 26. 6. [I will give peace, Prosperity.] Deut. 29. 19. 2 Sam. 11. 7. [the chastisement of our peace, which procured our Prosperity or Happiness.] To be safe, unhurt, unmolested, Job. 10. 21. [the people returned to the camp in peace, in safety, unmolested; or victorious.] 1 Sam. 20. 7. 2 Sam. 18. 32. Isai. 41. 3. To be in Health, Gen. 43. 28. 2 Sam. 20. 9. To be at ease from Pain, Psal. 38. 3. [neither rest, Peace, Ease, in my bones] To be victorious, Judg. 8. 9. [when I come again in peace, victorious] —11. 31. 1 Kings 22. 27. Thus Peace, Prosperity or Security is opposed to any Disquietude, Trouble or Calamity, Isai. 45. 7. Under this Head cometh the usual Compliment of the Jews,—in saluting, Exod. 18. 7. [they asked each other of their Welfare + they wished to each other for Peace, i. e. for all Happiness and Prosperity.] Judg. 18. 15. [saluted him, wished him Prosperity.] 1 Sam. 10. 4. The Form of wishing is expressed, 1 Sam. 25. 5, 6. [and greet him + wish to him for Peace, And—say,—Peace be to thee, &c.] 1 Chron. 12. 18. —or in encouraging, Gen. 43. 23. Judg. 6. 23. —or in civilly dismissing, Gen. 44. 17. Exod. 4. 18. Judg. 18. 6. 1 Sam. 1. 17. —Gen. 37. 4. [could not speak peaceably to him, i. e. would not give him the usual Compliment of Peace, or Happiness, Prosperity.] (2.) Relatively; to be perfectly secure, easy and happy with Regard to others, in Opposition to Enmity, Variance, War, 1 Sam. 7. 14. Ecclef. 3. 8. Thus the Word is used even in Cases where one Party is brought into Subjection to the other, Job. 10. 1, 4. 2 Sam. 10. 19. Job 5. 23. Prov. 16. 7. A man of my peace, is my familiar Friend, Psal. 41. 9. N° 83, 85. Cant. 8. 10. [found favour + Peace, Friendship.] III. It is applied to the Mind and Heart, Isai. 42. 19. [who is blind as he that is perfect, i. e. who should be perfect in Knowledge and Wisdom.] 1 Kings 8. 61. [Let your heart—be perfect, entire, sincere, upright, with the Lord.] —11. 4. N° 51. Exod. 18. 23. [this people shall go to their place in peace, fully satisfied and contented with the Administration of Justice.] Psal. 4. 8. [I will lay me down in peace, in perfect Composure and Tranquility of Mind.] IV. To the compleatly finishing, or perfecting of a Work; or to the doing any thing in a full and compleat Manner, [Signif. II.] 1 Kings 9. 25. Job 23. 14. Isai. 44. 26, 28. —38. 12, 13. [from day to night, or in one Day, i. e. in a very short Space, wilt thou make an end of me, wilt thou finish, dispatch my whole Life.] V. Particularly, it is applied to paying, making Restitution, restoring, rendring, requiting, rewarding in full, or in an adequate Degree. [Signif. I.] A Peace- or Pay-offering; being a grateful Return for Mercies received, N° 91, &c. To render, repay, requite, i. e. punish as a Magistrate in executing Justice, Deut. 7. 10. Psal. 41. 10. —62. 12. Isai. 59. 18. Rewards, Bribes, Isai. 1. 23. Mic. 7. 23.

Nomen. Schultens upon Job 1. 1. deriveth שם, a Name, from the Arabic Verb שמה or שמע, to be high, elevated, eminent. Therefore, according to him, the primary and proper Notion of שם, is, a Mark, or Sign, standing out, raised up, or exposed to open View; a standing Mark or Title of Distinction and Eminence, Gen. 11.
4. [and let us, say the Heads or Leaders, make us a name, a Monument or Token of Superiority and Eminence, I conceive, to denote, and to signify to all succeeding Generations, that they were the true original Governors, to whom all Mankind ought to be in Subjection: lest other Leaders starting up should carry off Parties, and so should break and dissipate the whole Body. It seemeth to have been a Piece of State Policy, to keep all Mankind together, under the Dominion of their present Chiefs, and their Successors.] 2 Sam. 7. 23.
[to make him a Name, a Monument of Honour and Eminence.] 1 Kings 5. 3, 5. [build an house unto, for, the Name, Honour, eminent Distinction of the Lord;
to denote, that he is the only true God, and King of the Israelites, to whom they ought to pay Subjection and Homage.] —8. 16, 29. 1 Chron. 17. 21. [to make thee a Name, Monument, of greatness and terribleness.] Isai.
18. 7. —55. 13. [it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.] Jer. 33. 9. Zeph. 3. 20.
—Ezek. 34. 29. [I will raise up for them a plant for renown.]
—39. 13. [it shall be to them a renown + Name.] Hence, the Name of God is put for that by which God is honoured, or made renowned; as his Ordinances, Worship, Obedience to his Commandments, Deut. 18.

5. [to minister in the name of the Lord; in the Offices of Religion.]
Pfal. 44. 20. Isai. 56. 6. Mic.
4. 5. The Name of God is profaned by corrupt, false Worship, and by Disobedience, Lev.
20. 3. —22. 2, 31, 32. Ezek.
20. 39. —36. 20. —43. 8.
Amos 2. 7. More particularly, it is applied, I. To the Memory, Memorial, or Remembrance of a Person in the World, Exod. 3.
15. Deut. 29. 20. [the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.] Job 18. 17. Prov. 10.
7. [the name of the wicked shall rot.] II. To the Character, good or bad, by which Persons are marked, distinguished,
or known in the World, Deut.
22. 14. 2 Sam. 7. 9. —8. 13.
[gat a name, a Character of Honour and Renown.] 1 Kings 1.
47. [the name, the Renown of Solomon.] Eccles. 7. 1. III. To the Name or Title given to a Person, Place, City, Animal, &c. by which it is marked and distinguished from others. And thus the great God is distinguished and known by several Names and Titles in Scripture, as Jehovah, Jah, Lord God,
Lord of Hosts, &c. Exod. 6. 3.
[but by my name JEHOVAH, (as giving Being to my Promises in the Execution of them) was I not known, experimentally, to them.] Deut. 28. 58. Pfal. 83.
18. Isai. 10. 16. Obs. (1.) The Name is supposed to correspond to the Nature of a Person or Thing; or to express some Qualities or Circumstances relating to them, Gen. 16. 13.
—22. 14. —26. 20, 33. —41.
45, 51, 52. &c. Hence, the Name of God sometimes signifieth the Nature and Properties or Attributes of God, as his Power, Wisdom, Goodness, Majesty, Holiness, Justice and Truth, Exod. 34. 5, 6, 7. Deut.
32. 3. Pfal. 8. 1. —9. 10. —
20. 1, 7. —31. 3. [names,
Goodness, sake.] —33. 21. — 102. 21. —113. 3. —124. 8.
—148. 5, 13. Prov. 18. 10. — 30. 4. [his name, Nature, Per-fections.] Isai. 30. 27. [the name, Power and Justice, of the Lord
cometh from far.] Mic. 6. 9.

Job 1. 21. [blessed be the name,
Justice, Providence, of the Lord.]
Thus also, to be called by a Name is frequently in Scripture the same as to be what a Person or Thing is called or named, Isai. 1. 26.
—9. 6. —62. 4. Mat. 5. 19.
Luke 1. 76. 1 John 3. 1. (2.)
To be called by the Name of a Person, denoteth the standing in a peculiar Relation to him, or the being his Property, his People, City, House, Gen. 48.
16. Isai. 44. 5. 2 Chron. 7. 14.
Jer. 7. 10. —25. 29. Amos 9.
12. (3.) To act in a Person's Name, is to act by his Commission or Authority, real or feigned, Deut. 18. 20. —21. 5.
1 Sam. 17. 45. —25. 9. 1 Kings
21. 8. 2 Kings 2. 24. Esth. 3.
12. Pfal. 20. 5. Zech. 13. 3.
(4.) To call by name is to single out, and appoint a Person for any Work, as eminently qualified for it, or as the Object of special Favour, Exod. 31. 2. Esth.
2. 14. Isai. 45. 3, 4. So God knew Moses by name, as he was very high in God's Favour, Exod. 33. 12, 17. (5.) To call the heavenly Bodies by names importeth absolute Dominion over them, as having all and every one of them at Command with respect to their Stations and Motions, Isai. 40. 26.

Araneus, a. A small Sort of Lizzard, from it's Spots called Stellio, a very crafty Creature; whose Forefeet are very like the Hands of a Man, with which it takes hold even of flat Cielings, and there goes in Pursuit of it's Prey. Bocbart. Such a small Creature may happen to be in Kings Palaces; and so may the Spider too; whose Legs, confidering the Use she makes of them, may elegantly be called Hands.

 [Our Translators derive this Word from אשם [Root 126.]
 to make desolate. But it seems to make better Sense under this Root, thus; in fat, or plentiful, places [Signif. I.] we are as dead men, incapable of injoying the Blessings which surround us.

Disponere, ordinare. This Word as a Noun, being always in the dual Number, seemeth to signify any two Things placed over against each other, in order to keep what is set upon them, or between them; in an even, steady Position. It is applied, I. To two Stones or Andirons set upon a Hearth, to support a Pot in which Meat is boiled, Psal. 68. 13. [Though ye have lien among the pots; or rather, Pot-ranges, where the Suttlers or Scullions dressed Victuals for the Camp; and where the strolling Followers of the Camp, who were not provided with Tents, probably, used to lodge, for the Sake of the Warmth; and so, were in a smutty, dirty Condition: which is here used to signify being in a low, contemptible State.] Hence, (1.) To set a Pot upon the Fire-ranges, N° 1. (2.) Figuratively, to set Peace in an even, steady Position, N° 2. II. Applied to Rails or Bars, placed on each Side, to keep Cattle asunder, and in Order, in a Stable or a Fold, Gen. 49. 14. [Issachar is a strong ass couching, lying down at his Ease, [Root 1741: 6.] between two burthens, two Rails confining him on each Side, namely, the Labours of Husbandry, and the extraordinary Taxes they might submit to, to be exempted from the Avocations and Perils of War. See Dr. Patrick. Note, the Image of a loaded Beast, lying down only to rest itself, is unnatural.] Jud. 5. 16. [the sheep-folds, Places where Cattle were railed in and confined.] III. It is applied to Ledges or Rails about the Edges of the Tables, upon which the butchered Parts of Sacrifices were laid, Ezek. 40. 43. [And on the Tables within were books, Ledges, an hand broad, fastned round about; and on those tables was the flesh of the offering laid.] Hence, to be laid, or confined in the Dust of Death, or the Grave, Psal. 22. 15.

Repere, et derivata inde.
This Word seemeth to have nearly the same Sense as scateo
in Latin; and I. It certainly sig-nifieth to swarm with Respect to Production, or to breed abundantly. And thus it is applied to the human Species, as well as to other Animals, N^o 4, 7, 9, 10. II. It is supposed to have Relation to the creeping Motion of Animals in the Sea, or on the Earth. But I can see no Connection between this and the foregoing Sense. With which it would better agree, if we suppose, that it also signifieth to swarm with Respect to Existence, or to exist in great Numbers. Which is the Case of Fishes, Locusts, Beetles, Grasshoppers, and perhaps of all the Animals mentioned Lev. 11.

Arca. An Ark or Chest to swim in. It is only applied to Noah's Ark, and to that which the Mother of Moses prepared for his Preservation; which probably was made of the thin Skins of the Papyrus. See Root 305. Signif. II.

Arca תַּבָּה * 1
the ark Gen. 6. 14, 15, of the ark 16, 18, 19. —7. 1, 7, 9, 13, 15, 17, 18. —8. 4, 6, 9, 9, 10, 13, 16, 19. —9. 10, 18. Exod. 2. 5.

In arca בַּתְּבָה 2 in the ark Gen. 8. 1.
Arcae לַתְּבָה 3
to the ark —6. 16, Arca תֵּבַת 4
an ark 14.
Arca תֵּיבַת 5
an ark Exod. 2. 3.

Hath two Significations.

I. Orbis habitabilis. Coccejus, very judiciously in my Opinion, deduceth this Word for בָּל, as it signifieth the Produce of the Earth, for the Sustenance of Man and Beast, [See Root 724. Signif. III.] Supposing the ת to be servile, and the long Vowel under it to indicate and supply the Defect of י Jod. Thus תבל will signify the World as inhabited, or those Parts of the Earth, which are fruitful, and capable of supporting inhabitants. Which will be found to agree perfectly well with several of the following Texts.

Orbis תַּבָּל * 1
the world 1 Sam. 2. 8. 2 Sam. 22. 16. 1 Chron. 16. 30. the—world Job 34. 13. —37. 12. Psal. 9. 8. —18. 15. —19. 4. —24. 1. —33. 8. —50. 12. —77. 18. —89. 11. —93. 1. —96. 10, 13. —97. 4. —98. 7, 9. Prov. 8. 26. Isai. 13. 11. —14. 17, 21. —18. 3. —24. 4. —26. 9, 18. —27. 6. —34. 1. Jer. 10. 12. —51. 15. Lam. 4. 12.

Et orbis וְתַבָּל 2 and the world Psal. 90. 2. yea, the world Nab. 1. 5.

In orbe בְּתַבָּל 3 in the habitable part Prov. 8. 31.

Et ex orbe וּמִתַּבָּל 4 and—out of the world Job 18. 18.

II. Flagitium, Scelus.
This Sense belongeth to בָּלל
Root 189: 8.

Flagitium תַּבָּל * 5 confusion Lev. 18. 23. —20. 12.

Scelus ipforum תַּבְלִיתָם * 6
their destruction Isai. 10. 25.
[See Root 191: 18.]

Stramen, palea.

Stramen תַּבָּן * 1
straw Gen. 24. 25, 32. Exod. 5. 7, 7, 10, 11, 16. Judg. 19. 19. Isai. 11. 7. —65. 25.

Et stramen וְתַבָּן 2

Pro stramine לַתַּבָּן 6
instead of straw Exod. 5. 12. ¶ the chaff † straw Jer. 23. 28.

Idem לַתַּבָּן 7
as straw Job 41. 27 † 19.

Palea מִתַּבָּן 8
straw Isai. 25. 10.

Inanitas, inane: res informis. A vast Desert quite barren and waste; perfect Emptiness, quite void of all good; what answereth no End, good for nothing.

Res informis תַּהוּ * 1 without form Gen. 1. 2. Jer. 4. 23. ¶ are vain 1 Sam. 12. 21. in vain Isai. 45. 18, 19. ¶ the empty place Job 26. 7. ¶ confusion † emptiness Isai. 24. 10. —34. 11. ¶ vanity —44. 9. —59. 4.

Et inanitas וְתַהוּ 2

In inanitate בְּתַהוּ 4 in a wilderness Job 12. 24. Psal. 107. 40.

In nibilum בְּתַהוּ 5 to nothing Job 6. 18. ¶ for a thing of nought Isai. 29. 21.

Et inanitate וּבְתַהוּ 6 in—waste Deut. 32. 10.

Sicut rem inanem בְּתַהוּ 7
as vanity Isai. 40. 23.

Ad inanitatem, in- לְתַהוּ 8 aniter
for nought —49. 4.

Abyssus. The deep Parts of the Sea, Exod. 15. 5, 8. or of the Earth, Psal. 71. 20. The Chaos, wherein the Earth and Sea were mixed together, is called by this Name, Gen. 1. 2. And so are Lakes or large Collections of deep Waters, by Land, Deut. 8. 7. as also the latent Reservoirs of Water in the Earth from whence they spring, Gen. 49. 25. Deut. 33. 13. Figuratively, heavy Afflictions are signified by *Deep*s.

Abyssus תַּהוּם * 1
the deep Gen. 1. 2. the—deep —7. 11. —8. 2. —49. 25. Job 38. 30. —41. 32 † 24. a —deep Psal. 36. 6. Deep —42. 7, 7. —104. 6. Prov. 8. 28. Isai. 51. 10. Ezek. 26. 19. —31. 4, 15. Amos 7. 4. Hab. 3. 10. ¶ the depth Job 28. 14. —38. 16. Prov. 8. 27. Jon. 2. 5 † 6.

Et ex abyfso וּמִתַּהוּם 2

Hath two Significations.

I. Medium, intimum. The Middle; in the Middle, amongst, &c. sometimes in the midst seemeth to be used emphatically, as Ezek. 30. 7. [they shall be desolate in the midst of, perhaps, most signally, above all, the countries that are desolate.] So Ezek. 31. 14, 18. — 32. 20. — Zech. 5. 4. [the curse shall remain in the midst, shall penetrate into every Part, of the house.] — 8. 8. [dwell in the midst of, thoroughly settled in, Jerusalem.] Josh. 17. 9. [among, intermixed with, the cities of Manasseh.] — 21. 41. [within, intermixed with, the possession.]

Hath two Significations.

I. Palma. The Palm-tree, whose Trunk is large, round, strait and lofty, having no Branches, covered with a rough, thick Bark, rising all the Way with several scaly Knots, by which a Person, with a loose Bandage about both his Body and the Tree, may readily climb to the Top of it, slipping the Bandage still upwards as he ascends, Cant. 7. 8. The Top is crowned with a large Tuff of spiring Leaves, about four Feet long, which never fall off, but always continue upon the Tree in the same flourishing Verdure. The whole is very beautiful. At the Bottom of the Leaves, the Fruit, called Dates, grows in Clusters, like Grapes, sweet and agreeable to the Palate. Pomet. p. 136. Celf. Hierobot. The Palm-tree, as Dr. Shaw [Trav. p. 244.] was inform'd, is in its greatest Vigour about thirty Years after it is planted; and continues in full Vigour seventy Years longer, bearing all this while every Year about three or four hundred Pounds weight of Dates. Psal. 92. 12, 13, 14. The Palm-tree yields a Kind of Honey, which cometh under the general Name of רֶבֶשׁ. For known to be very pleasant to the

Celsius (Hierobot. Part I. p. 255.) contends, that the Apples celebrated in Scripture, were Malu Cydonia, or Quinces; which,
from various ancient Authors he shews, were golden Apples in Colour, delicious in Taste, of a fragrant and refreshing Smell, far beyond our Quinces in Eng-

תפת 2102

Tophet, locus destinatus mortuis. Tophet is commonly derived from תף a drum [R.
 2097.] because they beat Drums to drown the Cries of Children, that were burnt to Death, for Sacrifices. But this idolatrous Rite is commonly exprest by causing Children to pass through the fire; which doth not convey the Notion of burning them to Death in it. Abaz caused his Son and Successor Hezekiah to pass through the Fire, 2 Kings 16. 3, 20. Manassah made his Son and Successor, (—21. 6.)
 and his other children (2 Chron.
 33. 6.) pass through the fire. It seemeth to have been common for a Man to make his Son or Daughter pass through the Fire to Molech, (2 Kings 23. 10.)
 even all that opened the womb, Ezek. 20. 26. But can we suppose that all these were barbarously burnt to Death? That Reflection, (Jer. 7. 31. — 32.
 35.) Which I commanded not, neither came it into my mind, seemeth too soft for such an Instance of horrid Cruelty. To-phet was a Place consecrated to idolatrous Worship, in the valley of Hinnom, near Jerusalem; and might be so named from the Tabors or Drums which were used for Mirth and Joy in idolatrous Solemnities. One of which was to offer or consecrate Children, under the Notion of a Burnt-offering, to Baal [the Lord] or Molech [the King] by causing them to pass through the fire, which Jeremiah alone, in Detestation of the abominable Practice, expresth by burning them in the fire, Jer. 7. 31.

Ezek. 16. 20, 21. [Thou hast slain [offered as Sacrifices, see Root 1913: 18, and Ezek. 20.
 31.] my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them, to be theirs,
 to be dedicated to those Idols.
 Thus God's Children, born unto him, were alienated from him, and, in Effect, murdered. And thus God's People shamefully polluted themselves, and became detestable. In Tophet the Strength and Glory of the Assyrian King, Sennacherib, was in one Night totally ruined; which is poeti-cally described, Isai. 30. 31, 33.
 King Josiah polluted Tophet,
 2 Kings 23. 10. The Children of Judah restored it. But by the just Judgment of God it was turned to them into a Scene of the most dreadful Slaughter, when the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, Jer. 7. 31, 32.
 —19. 4, 5, 6. Afterwards it became very execrable, being,
 as we are told, the common Receptacle of dead Carcases,
 Garbage and all Manner of Filth.
 For the consuming of which a continual Fire was kept burning.
 Hence the Jews used גיהנום γεεννα, the valley of Hinnom, for the Place of the final Destruction of wicked Men in the future World.

Idola, imagines quae futura indicant. From 1 Sam. 19. 13, 16, it appeareth (1.) That Teraphim was either a Statue or Bust of a Man. For when Michal had laid, and properly adjusted a Teraphim in David's Bed, a Stranger, at first Sight, would have thought, a Man was lying in the Bed. (2.) That Teraphim, though of a plural Termination, yet in Sense may be singular, as in this Place. (3.) That as to it's Use, it might be of an indifferent Nature; for we cannot suppose David would keep the Instruments ments of Idolatry in his House. But from other Parts of Scripture it appeareth to have been applied to superstitious and idolatrous Purposes; and particularly, that it was consulted (in a Manner unknown to us) as an Oracle in dubious Cases.

Hebrew-English CONCORDANCE,

DIRECTING TO

The Hebrew Root, and Branch, under which any principal English Word in the Old Testament is to be found.

DIRECTIONS for the proper Use of this INDEX.

OBERVE I. The Words in the English Bible, which are printed in the Italic Letter, are not in the Hebrew Text; but are put in by the Translators to supply the Sense. As, Isai. 28. 8. so that there is no place clean The Words [so that there is—clean] are not in the original Hebrew. And therefore such Words are not to be found either in this Concordance, or this Index.

II. The Numbers in the Margin of each Column in the Concordance are set on the right Side of the several Hebrew Words to which they belong.

III. The first Number after the English Word in the Index is the Number of the Root in the Concordance: the next Number separated from it by a Colon, is the Number of the Branch derived from that Root. As ABHOR 316: 6. 316 is the Number of the Root, and 6 is the Number of the Branch where abhor may be found. If the same English Word stands under several Branches of the same Root in the Concordance, the Numbers of those Branches are distinguished by Commas. As DEVICE 504: 8, 18, 22. Sometimes the Numbers of the Branches are expressed by a Line drawn between two Numbers; thus BALANCE 37: 46,—51. The Meaning is, that the Word Balance is found in all, or many, of the Places from Number 46 to 51. If the Texts and Translations under any Branches are uncommonly numerous, such Texts and Translations are in the Concordance divided into several Parts, and distinguished by capital Letters, A, B, C, &c. and then the Reference in the Index stands thus; Appointed 80: 11, 66, B. That is, you must look in the Concordance for the Word Appointed under (1) in the first Branch of the Root 80; as also under (B) in the 66th Branch of the same Root. When a Reference in the Index is set thus, everlasting 1369: 36, c, with a Comma between the Number and the Letter, you will find the Word twice; once under the first Part of the Branch 36, and again under the Subdivision of 36 marked (c).

IV. You must look in the Concordance for the English Word you want till you find the Book, Chapter and Verse in which it stands in the Bible: otherwise you cannot be sure you have the true Hebrew Root, and Branch to which it belongs.

V. If an English Word is used but under one Root, how often so ever it is repeated, in the Index I refer only to the Root, without specifying the particular Branches. As COVENANT. 232.

VI. When a Word cannot be found in the Concordance under its proper Division in the Index, look for it under the general Head. For Example; if you cannot find from everlasting Mic. 5. 2, under that Head in the Concordance, look for it under everlasting in the Index, and there you will be directed to it in the Concordance.

VII. When any Word in the Concordance hath a Comma both before and after it, as [in, the, battle], that Word may either be taken in, or left out, as [in battle, or in the battle.]

VIII. The Accusative Case is often in English inserted between the two Words, which give the Sense of the Hebrew Word, as [lifted himself up, carried them up] In this case look for lifted—up, carried—up.

IX. Some Words in English are only Modifications of the Sense of the Hebrew Verb, or Noun: as cause it to rain, causest to ride, certainly make, made great, made naked, make fruitful; blossom abundantly, utterly melt, wax poor; surely shew, exceeding glad, &c. In such Cases look for the Verb or Noun in the Index, as to rain, to ride, make, great, naked, fruitful, blossom, melt, poor, shew, glad, &c. And in the Concordance you will find the modifying Word along with it.

X. When you cannot find the Adjective, look for the Substantive to which it belongs.

XI. Should there be any Mistake in the Title of any Book, or in the Figures of Chapter or Verse in the Concordance, it may readily be corrected by looking the English Word, to which the Quotation belongs, in a good English Concordance.

XII. A double Stroke before the Number of a Root signifies, that the Place is in the Chaldean Concordance. As, Added 765: 1, 2, 7, 12, 15. || 2318.
